Dedication

To my grandparents and all of my aunts and uncles for having such large families that I had to start writing down all of my cousins just to figure out who was who (which was the genesis of my practicing genealogy) and most especially to my mother, Barbara J. (Brown) Lary, for giving me a strong sense of family and for encouraging my interest.

Reading This Book

If, while reading the following pages of this book, the reader will keep these few facts in mind, a much clearer understanding of the contents will result. The format or style used in this book is known as the Modified Register System, which has been refined by the National Genealogical Society.

Three types of numbers are used: one to uniquely identify the individual, one to indicate the generation into which that person falls, and one to denote his or her birth-order within the nuclear family. The starting person is 1, his first child is 2. All the children are listed as generation number two, the grand-children are listed as generation number three and so on. Each person is assigned an ID number in sequential order by generation.

When an individual is introduced in his/her separate sketch, the name appears in boldface letters. The name is preceded by the identification number. The last given name is followed immediately by a superscript number indicating the number of generations from the starting individual in this book. Immediately following the surname is another superscript number indicating the end note for the sources for this person. In parentheses following the name is a list of direct ancestors back to the starting individual. Only the ancestors' given names are listed, preceded by their ID numbers, and followed by their generation numbers in superscript.

When the list of children is presented, the plus (+) sign indicates that more about this child will be presented in his/her separate sketch. The ID number is printed, followed by "m" or "f" indicating the gender. Next a small roman numeral in front of the name designates birth-order. Finally, the name appears and is followed by the birth and death dates.

The descendants that appear here are the children by blood or by adoption; step-children are not included. The mother and father of the children will appear even if there was no marriage. If this is the case, the text will read "He had a child with..." instead of "He married..." All marriages are listed even if there were no children.

The index is arranged alphabetically by surname. Under each surname, the given names are alphabetically arranged. The name is followed by the year of birth and death in square brackets. The number to the right indicates the page where this name appears. The wife appears under her maiden name and under her married names with her maiden name in parentheses.

Explanation of Location Names

While reading this book you will see birth, marriage, and death locations written out with three names (i.e. Fairfield, Somerset, Maine). All locations have the county included as the second of three names because many records are kept at the county level and this will help people look up information on their own. Sometimes this may make for a confusing name, such as when the city and county have the same name (i.e. Hartford, Hartford, Connecticut). If the city is not known, but the county is, it will appear as Hartford County, Connecticut to distinguish it from the city of Hartford.

Please note that the county that is given is the modern day county. Over the years, some counties have changed borders and other counties were created by splitting one county into two (as when Maine's Kennebec County was created from Lincoln County in 1799.) Also note that Maine was a part of Massachusetts until 1820 so all events in towns in Maine prior to that date are actually events that occurred in Massachusetts.

When the location is outside the United States, the first place name is the city and the third place name is the country. The second place name is whatever region that the country divides itself into (county, shire, province, state, oblast, etc.). It is essentially that country's equivalent of the states in the United States.

Please note that Alaska has boroughs, not counties, and that Louisiana has parishes, not counties. Also note that the city of New York combines five boroughs (counties) so someone born in Manhattan should have their birth location listed as New York, Manhattan, New York. To avoid confusion, however, locations such as these have had the names reversed to make them more natural (Manhattan, New York, New York). If the borough is not known, then the location will just appear as New York City, New York. Finally, several cities in Virginia are "Independent Cities" meaning that they are not located in any county. An example of this would be Alexander, Virginia and it would appear as Alexander, Independent City, Virginia.

If the cemetery the person is buried in is known then it will appear before the city, county, and state (i.e. Veterans Cemetery, Augusta, Kennebec, Maine). Otherwise the burial location name appears the same as the others.

Acknowledgments

I would like to thank the Parkman Association officers before me that produced Parkman genealogies: Secretary Edna L. J. (Parkman) Partridge who submitted into the Parkman Association records a handwritten Record of the Parkman Family in 1925 that Rose (Parkman) Parker had prepared; Secretary Horace A. Pratt who produced The Descendants of Gideon and Mary (Vining) Parkman in 1958 so that all the Parkman descendants could see their history; and Secretary Lynne (Footman) Goodwin who produced The Descendants of Gideon and Mary (Vining) Parkman in 1990 which was a large update and expansion on the family genealogy.

I would also like to thank all of the people who took the time to try to answer my questions about their families, who contributed family photographs, and the following people who sent me information on their family histories (some of whom double-checked my data entry and even did original research - many thanks!)

Finally, I would especially like to thank Ardell J. (Parkman) Lynds, who helped me in many ways, not the least of which was researching data, making new genealogical contacts, and offering feedback and suggestions.

Without the contributions of all of these people, the book you hold in your hands would be much less rich.

Introduction

This book is an updated and expanded version of the earlier Gideon Parkman genealogies. I have taken what time I could to do original research into his descendants. I was successful in fleshing out some lines of descent. Other lines, regrettably, remained unknown.

I also took the opportunity to correct some errors from previous versions. That does not mean that everything in this book will be correct. I know that there will be errors; I have just tried to do what I could to eliminate as many as possible. There are roughly 100,000 separate pieces of information in this book. Even if they are 99.9% accurate, that means that there are still 100 errors.

This book is by no means complete; a genealogy never is. At some point, you just have to decide to publish what information is available. I had agreed to produce this book for the 75th Parkman Association Meeting in 1999. I have done so. The information is as up to date as I, and the people sending me information, could make it.

One thing to not get confused by is a family that appears to have only one or two children born in the 1950's. The Maine Vital Records are only open to the public for births up through 1955. Anything after that is not available. This sometimes results in a family who appears to have only one or two children born to them, but who may in fact have had several more born after 1955. Because the records are not available, I was not able to add these children to the book.

I found myself affected by this once. There was a genealogy published on the Lary family. My two sisters were born before 1955, but I was born after. The Lary book had my two sisters in it, but did not list me.

There are two frequently asked questions about the Parkman family that I should address here. They are, "Is the family connected with the town of Parkman, Maine?" and "Is the family connected with Francis Parkman, the historian and author?" The answer to both is "No, but they are connected to each other."

There was an Elias Parkman of Dorchester, Massachusetts who appears to be the first Parkman to come to America (or at least to Massachusetts.) He had many descendants in Massachusetts and it is possible that Gideon Parkman is one of them, but we have never been able to make the connection. It is Elias' descendants who owned the land on which the town of Parkman was founded and it was named for them. Francis Parkman was also a descendant of Elias'.

Even though our branch of the Parkman family does not have connections to those two things, there are still many claims to "fame" and many fascinating pieces of information that appear here. I hope that you and your family find this book to be interesting, informative, and most of all, enjoyable.

CHAPTER 1

The Descendants of Gideon and Mary (Vining) Parkman

Listing 4090 descendants for 12 generations.

GENERATION NO. 1

1. Gideon[1] Parkman[1] was born about 1714 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts. Gideon died in 1789 in Bloomfield (now Skowhegan), Somerset, Maine, and was buried in Old Bloomfield Cemetery, Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine.

He married Mary Vining[2] 21 August 1734 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts. She was born 9 April 1717 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts. She was the daughter of John Vining and Elizabeth Richards. She was buried in Old Bloomfield Cemetery, Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine.

ISSUE:

2. m i. Noah Parkman, born 25 September 1736 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts, died in 1763, at the age of 25 or 26. Noah lost his life fighting in the French and Indian War.[3]

\+ 3. f ii. Betty/Betsey Parkman, born 8 March 1738, died 4 November 1824.

\+ 4. m iii. Daniel Parkman, born 7 September 1743, died 4 November 1824.

\+ 5. f iv. Rhoda Parkman, born 7 February 1745, died 1808.

\+ 6. f v. Mary/Polly Parkman, born 20 April 1751, died 23 January 1827.

Several attempts have been made to determine who Gideon's parents were. So far, nothing has been found on them. The book Genealogies of the Early Families of Weymouth, Massachusetts wrote, "He is conjectured to be 'The young man whom Isaac Pool brought up whose name was Gideon [———?———], bapt: March 1, 1730,' at the Second Church of Weymouth." It also speculates "He may have been a son of Nathaniel and Hannah (Hett) Parkman of Boston."[4]

Addressing these two possibilities: No other mention has been found of the boy Gideon in notes about Isaac Pool. Where Isaac Pool's family is described in the same book, no mention is made of Gideon. If these two Gideon's were the same person, then perhaps his parents died while he was young, or perhaps they were poor and Gideon was apprenticed to Isaac.

The second possibility is very unlikely. Research done on Parkman Vital Records in Massachusetts by David Sims revealed that Hannah (Hett) Parkman would have been in her 50's when Gideon would have been born. Unfortunately, the same research showed no good candidates at all to be Gideon's parents. None seemed to be the right age, in the right place, or had their other children at the right time.

Gideon moved from Weymouth, Massachusetts to Abington, Massachusetts about 1740.[5] He fought in the French and Indian War from 31 May 1754 to 3 October 1754 (18 weeks) on the Eastern Frontier. He was a Sergeant under the command of Captain Nathan Adams.[6] He gave his age as 46 on 26 February 1760 and stated that his birthplace was Weymouth.[7] On 12 December 1764 (recorded 31 October 1765), Gideon sold ten acres of land in Abington to his son, Daniel, for the sum of thirty pounds.[8] At a 16 March 1778 Abington town meeting, Gideon Parkman was chosen a Surveyor of Highways.[9] At a 1 June 1778 Abington town meeting, "the town gave Gideon Parkman what [he] was rated in John Pool's Rate Bills to hire soldiers for to goe to New York in the year 1776."[10]

Unlike Gideon, Mary's ancestors can almost all be found among the first settlers of Weymouth, Massachusetts. Below is an Ahnentafel Chart that shows her ancestors. The numbers in front of each name show their relationship to the other generations. Each person's father's number is twice their's. Each person's mother's number is twice their's, plus 1. For example: Mary is 1. Her father would be twice that 1*2 = 2. Her mother would be twice her number plus 1 (1*2) + 1 = 3. Mary's father's father would be 2*2 = 4. Mary's father's mother would be (2*2) + 1 = 5. Thus we see that Mary's father was #2 John Vining, her mother was #3 Elizabeth Richards, her father's father was #4 John Vining, and her father's mother was #5 Naomi [———?———]. All of the information on this chart, except for Mary's burial site, was derived from the Weymouth Vital Records and the book Genealogies of the Early Families of Weymouth, Massachusetts. The connection between Elizabeth Richards and her father (#6) is the most questionable of the ancestor information presented here.

Samuel Whitman and Gideon's daughter, Rhoda, had already come to Canaan (now Skowhegan) by 1773. Gideon, Mary, and their grandson, Noah (Daniel's son), a boy of 13 or 14, moved from Abington, Massachusetts to Canaan (now Skowhegan), Massachusetts (now Maine) in 1782 or 1783. Gideon purchased 5 1/2 acres of land on the south side of the Kennebec River below the eddy from Isaac Smith. Micah Pratt, Jr. and Gideon's daughter, Mary/Polly might have been in Canaan in 1782, but were certainly there before 1790. Solomon Clark and Gideon's daughter, Betty/Betsey, joined them about 1783. Their son Daniel and his wife, Hannah, were the final ones to move there about 1790.

Gideon died between May of 1788 and September of 1789. The letter of administration for the Probate of his Estate was signed on September 15, 1789, so Gideon would have had to have died before this. Mary's date of death is not known.

GENERATION NO. 2

3. Betty/Betsey[2] Parkman[13] (1.Gideon[1]) was born 8 March 1738 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts. Betty/Betsey died 4 November 1824 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 86, and was buried in Old Bloomfield Cemetery, Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine.

She married Solomon Clark 26 May 1763 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. He was born 14 November 1744 in Braintree, Norfolk, Massachusetts. He was the son of Benjamin Clark, Jr. and Bethiah Shaw. Solomon died 8 March 1814, at the age of 69, and was buried in Old Bloomfield Cemetery, Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine.

Solomon and his wife first settled on the Peter Heywood lot about 1780, which is lot #16, second lot north of the cemetery, and the lot below her father, Gideon Parkman. In 1783 they were granted lot #18 which is above Gideon's. Solomon planted the first apple orchard in town and made the first cider in town. He served in town office and as deacon of the first church in town.

4. Daniel[2] Parkman[16] (1.Gideon[1]) was born 7 September 1743 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. Daniel died 4 November 1824 in Milburn (now Skowhegan), Somerset, Maine, at the age of 81.

Daniel served in the Revolutionary War thus any descendant can join either the Daughters of the American Revolution (D.A.R.) or the Sons of the American Revolution (S.A.R.) by proving relationship to him. He was a private in Captain Edward Cobb's Company of Militia (State) and Colonel Edward Mitchell's Regiment, which responded to the alarm of April 19, 1775, which was the day of the Battle of Lexington and Concord, and marched April 20, 1775 from Abington to Marshfield. He also served in Captain William Reed's Company, General John Thomas' Regiment. He enlisted Apr 27, 1775 and served three months. He is recorded as having subsequent services in 1777, 1779, and 1780 for a total of nearly two years.

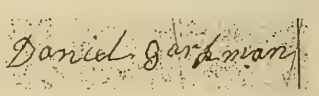
Daniel sold 1 1/2 acres of land in Abington, Massachusetts to Peleg Stetson for the sum of seventeen pounds, ten shillings on 20 April 1786.[17] He was recorded in the first U.S. Census in 1790 as living in Abington, Massachusetts. He came to Canaan (now Skowhegan) about 1790 and settled on a farm on the North side below the Eddy on what is now Parkman Hill. This house remained the home of his descendants. The lot now lies within the State Park on the north bank of the river.

Daniel applied for a pension in 1818, saying in his application, "Occupation a farmer, but from age and infirmity am able to do but little labor. My income does not exceed $15. My family consists of five, my wife, Hannah, 76, who broke her thigh about a year since and remains to this time unable to walk across the room and don't expect to be any better, daughter, Mary, 46, who has been a cripple for the last 30 years, Hannah, 36, and a granddaughter, Nancy Soule." This is Daniel's signature from that 1818 document.



On September 18, 1824, about six weeks before he died, Daniel deeded 40 acres of his land over to his daughter, Hannah, in consideration for the services that she had given him.

He married Hannah House[18] 26 April 1766 in Hanover, Plymouth, Massachusetts. She was born 1741/1742. Hannah died after 1818.

The prior two Parkman genealogies reported that Hannah was born June 10, 1736 in Scituate, Massachusetts, the daughter of Benjamin House and Abigail Merritt. This information raises two questions based on other information we now have.

The first is that Daniel stated in his 1818 Pension application that his wife, Hannah, was 76. This would give a birth year of 1741 or 1742, not 1736. The second thing is that Lydia, daughter of Daniel Parkman and Hannah House, was born in 1788. If Hannah was born in 1736 then she would have to have been 52 when Lydia was born. While this is not impossible, it is highly unlikely.

In addition to these two discrepancies, there are two instances of a lack of data that seem to point to Hannah not being the child of Benjamin and Abigail. The first is that there was a Benjamin House of Scituate who died in 1778 with a will. If he was Hannah's father, she would have been married by this date, still living in Massachusetts, and therefore should have been mentioned by her married name in the will. The second absence of something that would be expected is that none of Daniel's and Hannah's children were named Benjamin or Abigail. It was quite common for families to name their children after their parents or siblings.

Who, then, were the parents of Hannah? The following information comes from research done on the House family by Sheila Morelli, which she kindly shared with us.

David House (b. 1709 in Scituate, Massachusetts) and Elizabeth Dellys/Delis/Dilis married February 11, 1730 in Scituate, Massachusetts. He was the son of Joseph House (b. 1667) and Deborah Coombs (b. about 1660 d. after 1722). Elizabeth was either the daughter or sister of Simon Dellys/Delis, a French Hugenot who migrated to Boston, Massachusetts before 1716. He removed to Scituate, Massachusetts soon after where he married Eunice Dodson. He had been previously married and at least one daughter, named Mary, came to Boston with him. David and Elizabeth had at least three children: David (b. 1731), Coombs, and Eunice (b. about 1739).

Looking at this information, we can draw the following parallels to Hannah House: Based on the births of the other children, David and Elizabeth could have had a child in 1741 or 1742 that would be Hannah. Most telling, though are the names of Daniel and Hannah's children.

The first five are named Noah, Betty Delis, Mary, David, and Gideon. As was mentioned earlier, families tended to name their children after their parents or siblings. The first child, Noah, would have been named for Daniel's older brother, Noah, who died. The third child, Mary, would have been named after Daniel's mother. The fifth child, Gideon, would have been named after Daniel's father. This then leaves the second and fourth children's names. Their names are Betty Delis and David. These are the exact same names as those listed in Sheila Morelli's research above. Betty's middle name, Delis, also should be noted. It was quite uncommon for anyone born in the 1700's to have a middle name, let alone a woman. Finally, why would Daniel have waited for the second son after Noah and the second daughter to give his parent's names unless the first son after Noah and the first daughter were given names from Hannah's family?

While there is no conclusive evidence that David House and Elizabeth Dellys/Delis/Dilis were the parents of Hannah House, the evidence is very persuasive.

5. Rhoda[2] Parkman[23] (1.Gideon[1]) was born 7 February 1745 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. Rhoda died in 1808, at the age of 62.

The Whitman book has Rhoda born in 1735, not 1745. The Abington Vital Records have her birth year as 1745/1746. Some publications (both Parkman and others) have listed a marriage for Rhoda to a Richard Humphrey. She and Richard filed their marriage intentions July 10, 1762 in Abington, Massachusetts. It is not known if they actually married or what became of him. It is possible that he died during the French and Indian War. The reason there is a question of the marriage is due to the fact that when Rhoda and Samuel Whitman were married four years later, her last name was still given as Parkman, not Humphrey. In addition, there is no record of a "Rhoda Humphrey" at all in the Abington Vital Records.

She married Samuel Whitman[24] 23 December 1766 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts. He was born 20 August 1744 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts. He was the son of John Whitman and Abigail Hollis.

Samuel and Rhoda came to Maine in 1772, staying a year in Whitefield. In 1773 they came to Skowhegan and settled on lot #19. One of their children was born in Skowhegan in 1773. Before the turn of the century, Samuel sold his farm on the Kennebec and in 1802 he owned the farm above the fork of what are now the Lakewood Road and the East Madison Road. The only children who stayed in Skowhegan were John and Daniel. Samuel and Rhoda had numerous descendants: many names among present residents of Skowhegan, more settled in other towns of Maine, and some helped to populate the West.

Samuel is a fifth generation descendant of John Whitman of Weymouth, Massachusetts. Samuel's father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and great-great-grandfather were all named John Whitman. People who would like more information on John's ancestors should consult the book History of the Descendants of John Whitman of Weymouth, Massachusetts by Charles H. Farnum, A.M., an Assistant is Archeology in the Peabody Museum, Yale University. It was published in 1889 and there is a copy in the Maine State Library in Augusta, Maine.

6. Mary/Polly[2] Parkman[26] (1.Gideon[1]) was born 20 April 1751 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. Mary/Polly died 23 January 1827 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 75.

She married Micah Pratt, Jr.[27]. He was born 15 August 1749 in Weymouth, Norfolk, Massachusetts. He was the son of Micah Pratt, Sr. and Elizabeth Lincoln. Micah, Jr. died 8 October 1827 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 78.

Mary and Micah filed their marriage intentions on January 2, 1773 in Abington, Massachusetts. They were probably married soon after. Micah served during the Revolutionary War. He came to Skowhegan in 1782. He and Mary bought lot #20. His land covered the east end of East Front Street. Part of this property was in the Pratt family for 100 years.

GENERATION NO. 3

7. Betty/Betsey[3] Clark[28] (3.Betty/Betsey[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 26 February 1760 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. The birth date I was given for her was before her parents' marriage date. One or the other may be incorrect.

She married William Weston[29] in 1784 in Canaan (now Skowhegan), Somerset, Maine. He was born 11 November 1763 in Concord, Middlesex, Massachusetts. He was the son of Joseph Weston and Eunice Farnsworth. William died 29 December 1840, at the age of 77. William built the first bridge across the island in 1809 at the cost of $5,000.

8. Noah[3] Clark[32] (3.Betty/Betsey[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 23 April 1764 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. Noah died about 1813.

Noah had a lot on the back part of his father's lot. It was on the cross road leading to Middle Road. Noah died while still relatively young. The exact makeup of his families is still somewhat in doubt. There are quite a few sources that contain data relating to his spouses and two of his daughters, Polly and Mary, but they are confusing and not always consistent. Complicating matters is the fact that at least three Clark women married at least three Herrin men. Adding even more confusion is that fact that Polly is a common nickname for a woman named Mary. Several people have researched these lines, including descendants on both the Herrin and Clark lines and the information that appears here is the synthesis of all of their studies.

Noah married (1) Mary Walpee[33] in 1787 in Canaan, Somerset, Maine.

46. f v Submitty Clark. Submitty was a minor after her father died. It is possible that her mother was Noah's second wife, Nancy.[37]

Mary also married (2) Daniel Herrin.

Noah married (2) Nancy [———?———] [38]. Nancy is listed as Noah's widow in a deed where his heirs are selling his property.

13. Noah[3] Parkman[41] (4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 15 March 1769 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. Noah possibly died June 1820 (see below) in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 51, and was buried in Hartland, Somerset, Maine.

Noah is the grandson who came to Old Canaan with Gideon. His daughter Electa buried him beside her mother Mary (Noah's second wife) in Hartland. There was a notice in a couple of newspapers in July of 1819 of a Noah Parkman "50y at Bloomfield 24th ult [previous month]". It did not specify that it was a death notice, but it closely matches this Noah. If it was a death notice, he would have died June 24, 1819 in Bloomfield. He also would have been 50 in June of 1819.

He married (1) Hannah Weston 1788 in Lancaster, Worcester, Massachusetts. She was born 23 February 1768 in Lancaster, Worcester, Massachusetts. She was the daughter of Joseph Weston and Eunice Farnsworth. Hannah died 11 February 1800, at the age of 32, and was buried in Old Bloomfield Cemetery, Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine.

When she was seven years old Benedict Arnold came up through Skowhegan to Quebec, Canada. Arnold and some of his men stopped at her father's cabin and had dinner. Her father, Joseph Weston, left with Arnold, got sick, returned home, and died in 1775. Some of Arnold's men also stopped at Whitman's and at Heywood's. Hannah's brother Samuel Weston was the first postmaster, ran the first store, and was first to hold town office. He was the grandfather of Governor Coburn, a great-grandfather of Grace Smith, the wife of George Otis Smith.

He settled at the foot of Neil Hill, near the History House, on Elm Street. About 1790 he built a house which is part of the house that is still standing. He sold the house in 1809 to Benjamin Steward, who built on to the house.

17. Gideon[3] Parkman[45] (4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 11 April 1777 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. Gideon died 13 January 1844, at the age of 66, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine.

Gideon settled on land adjoining his brother John's land. By 1806 forty families petitioned to the General Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (Maine was part of Massachusetts until 1820) to incorporate the plantation by the name of Palmyra. Gideon Parkman was one of the signers.

The 1990 Parkman book had the following excerpt from an unknown source:

> Palmyra had one other involvement in the War of 1812. The British had chased the U.S. ship "Adams" up the Penobscot River to capture her. In order to prevent that from happening, Captain Morris destroyed the "Adams" at Hampden. Wanting to escape capture and to return to their unit, the men set out on foot for the Kennebec River. They arrived in Gideon Parkman's field tired and hungry. Mr. Parkman killed some lambs and dug some potatoes so the women of the neighborhood could cook the soldiers a meal. After nourishment and rest, the men were sent on their way, we assume, with a hero's farewell.

On September 5, 1807, David Jewett, Justice of the Peace, issued a warrant to Samuel Lancey to warn freeholders of a meeting at Lancey's at 1:00 p.m. on September 14, 1807, to elect town officers. Thus, the scene was set for the first town meeting ever held in Palmyra. The following officers were elected: Samuel Lancey, Moderator; Daniel Gale, Town Clerk; Samuel Lancey, Joseph Folsom, Samuel McClure, Selectmen; Isaac Smith, Town Treasurer; Jeremiah Robinson, Constable; Gideon Parkman, Daniel Gale, Isaac Smith, Surveyors of Highway.

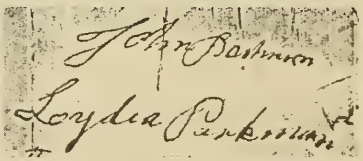
20. John[3] Parkman[50] (4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 8 May 1785 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. John died 18 February 1868 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 82, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. John's gravestone says he was 83 when he died which would give a birth year of 1784, not 1785, if his birth month and day are correct.

The Parkmans apparently moved to Bloomfield, (now Skowhegan) Maine from Abington, Massachusetts when John was about 21 years of age. He settled in Palmyra where he cleared the land, built a log cabin and later a frame house that still stands (ca. 1978). It was here that John and Lydia lived during their lifetime. John's brother, Gideon, also cleared land adjoining John's, apparently at the next corner west. Gideon also had a large two story house on the southeast corner. At one time nearly all this section was occupied by Parkmans. Later a cousin Joseph joined them and settled to the north.

The drawing here is the house that John built. It is from Eleanor Heath. She wrote the following about it: "This is the Parkman place where I was born. My father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and great-great-grandfather lived here: John and Lydia Parkman, Benjamin and two wives, Romanzo and Carrie Parkman, C. Earl Parkman. The place is no longer there. It burned and a small place was built there."



These are John's and Lydia's signatures from an 1837 document.

This is the Parkman cradle (with a doll in it.) John Parkman made it for his oldest son, Benjamin, when he was born in 1810. It was made in Bloomfield, (now Skowhegan) Maine and then later carried about 20 miles away to Palmyra. It has been handed down to the eldest son of each generation until Henry Parkman had only a daughter - Ardell (Parkman) Lynds. The cradle is now in her possession.

The 1990 Parkman book had the following excerpt from an unknown source:

> Finally, in 1812, the town decided to build the first school building on the four corners of the road between Daniel Gale's and Joseph Folsom's, a second schoolhouse by the land of Samuel Marsh and the third about 200 rods south of the home of Eben Nay on Warren Hill. Things didn't happen rapidly in those days and it wasn't until 1815 that Daniel Gale and others built the first crude schoolhouse on the four corners. The second school built might well have been the one which survived for many years at Marsh Corner as both schools seem to have been constructed in the same manner. John Parkman built this school and, like that of the Gale School, the floor sloped from either side to the center with a level space about six feet wide being left there. The door was strongly built and was on the south center of the building and the blackboard was on the opposite north wall.

Nathalie Rines notes that this schoolhouse still exists and is now the home of Debbie Fletcher Turner.

John married Lydia Pratt[51]. She was born 22 December 1784 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. She was the daughter of Asa Pratt. Lydia died 3 April 1862, at the age of 77, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine.

Lydia's son, Asa's, death record says that she was born in Bloomfield, Maine. The Canaan town records say that Lydia's last name is Jewett, not Pratt.

21. Lydia[3] Parkman[52] (4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 5 April 1788 in Abington, Plymouth, Massachusetts. Lydia died 21 April 1852 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 64, and was buried in Fuller Corner Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine.

She married Gideon Soule[53]. He was born 13 September 1792 in Halifax, Plymouth, Massachusetts. He was the son of William Soule and Rachel Poole. Gideon died before 1870 probably in Hartland, Somerset, Maine.

In 1820, Gideon and family were living in Canaan, Maine. He was not found in the 1830 census. In 1840, he and his family were living in Palmyra, Maine. In 1850, Gideon, his wife, Lydia, his son, Abram, and his daughters, Louisa and Emerline were living in Hartland, Maine. There were also two children: Roxana J. Flanders, age 7, and [last name was difficult to read - it may not be Kirby], age 4. These two children could possibly be grandchildren of Gideon and Lydia.

After Lydia died, Gideon married Frances McClure of Palmyra, Maine. In 1860 they were living in Hartland, Maine. He was not found in the 1870 census, leading to the probability that he passed away before then. The children listed are probably not the only ones that he and Lydia had. The 1840 census suggests that there were 8 children. The 1850 census is the first one that listed people individually, but by that time, the only children's' names available were the adult children of Gideon and Lydia who were still living on the family farm.

There were four people with the Soule surname who married in Palmyra. They may be other children of Gideon and Lydia: Lucinda Soule of Hartland, Maine married 2 April 1847 Edwin Cook; Margaret Soule of Palmyra, Maine married 10 September 1848 John R. Weymouth of Orono, Maine; Mary A. Soule of Palmyra, Maine married 10 March 1849 James C. Taylor of Brunswick, Maine; and James Soule married 26 July 1849 Clara S. Cha???, both of Palmyra, Maine. It is known that Mary Soule (or Taylor) died and her husband remarried. Nothing further has been found concerning Lucinda, Margaret, or James.

The Whitman book has Molly born in "Whitfield" (probably Whitefield) rather than in Skowhegan. It also lists two days for the marriage of Molly and Stephen - April 7th and April 13th.

She married Stephen Chamberlain[62] 13 April 1796. He was born 5 December 1763 in Pepperell, Middlesex, Massachusetts. Stephen died 22 January 1837, at the age of 73.

The Whitman book has the following passage for Stephen: "Stephen was the son or grandson of John Chamberlain, celebrated in the early history of New England as an Indian fighter and the slayer of the noted Pequot chief Paugus, in "Lovewell's Fight," near what is now Fryeburg, Maine. They settled near Cornville, Maine."

25. Rhoda[3] Whitman[72] (5.Rhoda[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 1773 in Bloomfield, Somerset, Maine. Rhoda died 26 November 1856, at the age of 83.

The copy of the Whitman book in the Maine State Library has Rhoda born in Bloomfield and someone wrote over it "Canaan". The birth year listed here is from the Whitman genealogy, but it is probably incorrect. Her last child was born in 1827 (also according to the Whitman genealogy.) She would have been 54 in 1827. A birth year in the 1780's would be more realistic.

She married George Abbott[73]. He was born 30 March 1778 in Berwick, York, Maine. George died 26 March 1870, at the age of 92.

In 1806 George moved to Winslow, Maine and settled in the eastern part of the town. He was a man of steady purpose and a highly respected member of the community. After the death of his wife, Rhoda, he married Mrs. Mary Crocker who died in March of 1863.

26. John[3] Whitman[80] (5.Rhoda[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born March 1780 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. John died about August 1865. In the Whitman book someone wrote in Canaan for John's birthplace.

42. Betsey[4] Clark[95] (8.Noah[3], 3.Betty/Betsey[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born about 1788 in Salem, Essex, Massachusetts. Betsey died about 1870 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine.

She married Joel Priest[96] about May 1812 in Clinton, Kennebec, Maine. He was born in Winslow, Kennebec, Maine. Joel Priest, Sr. and Betsey Clark probably died 1870-1871 in Skowhegan. They sold their property in Clinton, Maine in 1869, then with Joel Priest, Jr., they bought property in Skowhegan, Maine and Joel Priest, Jr. sold them a life lease. They gave him their money from the Clinton property. In the 1870 census, Joel Priest, Sr. and Betsey were living with Joel Priest, Jr. and family in Skowhegan. In 1871 Joel Priest, Jr. and family (Agnes and Mary) moved from Skowhegan to Milford (according to Joel Priest, Jr.'s pension records.) Betsey and Joel Priest, Sr.'s marriage intentions were filed 17 May 1812. Presumably, they were married within a couple of weeks.

Joel may be the son of Jonathan Priest and Joanna Couch. He was a farmer. His place of birth is listed as Salem, Massachusetts on two of his children's' death records (Alice and Benjamin). On Joel, Jr.'s death record it is given as Winslow, Maine. His descendant, Charity (Labree) Delana believes Winslow to be correct since Jonathan Priest and his wife were in Winslow at the time of Joel's birth. In addition, she has found that most of the early members of the Priest family in Maine settled in the Winslow area.

Susan died 20 October 1867, at the age of 74 or 75, and was buried in Pooler Cemetery, Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. Roberta (Dunton) Meserve has Susan Adams being born in 1793 in Skowhegan, Maine, while the Maine State Archives has her place of birth in Parkman, Maine.

She married Simeon Parkman[104] (See number 53) 1814 in Bloomfield, Somerset, Maine. He was born 19 January 1794 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. Simeon lived on lot #18 in Skowhegan, Maine and later moved to lot #14 below the cemetery on the Waterville Road. From 1811 to 1826 he owned a sawmill with Andrew Morse on the outlet of Currier Brook. He later moved to Daniel Herrin's place. His name appears on a list of volunteers for the War of 1812. There was a Noah Parkman from Dexter who married a Nancy Parkman from St. Albans in 1875. There was no Nancy Parkman born and only two women named Nancy married a Parkman. One of those was married until her death in 1888, so she cannot be this Nancy Parkman. This leaves Nancy Wells who married Everett Parkman and lived in St. Albans. Everett died in 1873. This Noah, who lived in Dexter, was Everett's half-brother and would have known Nancy. His wife, Mary, died in 1874. Both spouses died before 1875 and both Noah and Nancy were still alive in 1875, so it is just about certain that these two were the Noah and Nancy who got married.

Noah married (2) Nancy A. Wells[119] 29 December 1875 in Dexter, Penobscot, Maine. She was born 1813 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. Nancy died 1891, at the age of 78. Nancy also married (1) Everett Chester Parkman (See number 59) 1833 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine. He was born 1811 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. He was the son of Noah Parkman and Mary Smith.

52. David[4] Parkman (13.Noah[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born between 1 September and 4 December in 1792 in Bloomfield (now Skowhegan), Somerset, Maine. David died 4 December 1864 in Corinna, Penobscot, Maine. He married Susannah Holt Taylor 28 February 1815 in Norridgewock, Somerset, Maine. She was born 28 March 1794. Susannah died in 1881, at the age of 86 or 87. David and Susannah settled in Corinna, Maine.

Susannah filed a claim for a widow's pension because of David's service in the War of 1812. The following is some of the personal information she provided: She was living in Corinna, Maine at the time (Aug 13, 1878) and she was 84 years old. David served in the infantry in the company of Capt. Nathaniel Russell and the regiment of Col. James Waugh. David was called out at Bloomfield, Maine in September of 1814 and he served for thirteen to fifteen days. He received an honorable discharge in September of 1814 and she believed he was discharged in Waterville, Maine. At the time he was twenty-one, a farmer, born in Bloomfield, six feet two inches in height, his hair was dark brown, his eyes were blue, and he had a light complexion. She and David lived in various towns in Maine. They were: Palmyra from 1815 to 1816, Norridgewock from 1816 to 1817, Bloomfield from 1817 to 1820, Palmyra from 1820 to 1835, and Corinna from 1835 until his death in 1864. Because of her age and infirmity, Susannah was not able to travel to appear in the court, but she signed her "X" and it was witnessed by two longtime friends, Willard Wheeler, age 72, who had known her for forty years and Elijah M. Eaton, age 52, who had known her for forty-two years.

If that information was correct, then perhaps it was this Benjamin.

Since he was 23 when he enlisted, this suggests he was attending a college or trade school. The fact that he was also promoted from Private to First Lieutenant during his service, even if it was a brevet promotion, also indicates that he had some post-high school education. He enlisted on August 12, 1863 in Company D in the Cavalry. He died of wounds less than a year later.[132]

60. Gridley T.[4] Parkman[135] (13.Noah[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 18 March 1813 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. Gridley died 29 May 1894 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 81, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. He married (1) Phebe Parker[136]. She was born in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. She was the daughter of Phineas Parker.

The 1990 Parkman book had an undated newspaper clipping from an unknown paper. It was written by Mrs. Vertine Ellis. The text is as follows:

> Gridley Parkman of St. Albans had the dubious distinction of being the first prisoner in the new Norridgewock jail. This was back in the 1830's when Norridgewock was the Somerset County seat.

Parkman was accused of murdering his wife, and was confined to the newly built jail while awaiting trial.

Gridley, and his wife, the former Phebe Parker, lived in St. Albans on the left side of the road north of Big Indian Lake, leading from Bedell Brant's corner.

The building they occupied has been gone for years, but primroses have marked the place in years past. The land is now owned by Byron Ballard.

Gridley was the son of Noah and Mary Smith Parkman, born in 1813. His wife, Phebe, was the daughter of Phineas Parker who came to St. Albans in 1820 and settled on Rand Hill.

Phebe was ill at her home and was being cared for by Miss Betsy Parkman, daughter of John and Sylvia Parkman.

Gridley was what we would call a veterinarian, known as a horse doctor in those days. He brought home two bottles of medicine - one for his wife and one for a sick horse. Somehow the bottles got mixed up and his wife was given the horse medicine and died.

A hearing was held in the brick schoolhouse. Gridley was arrested and taken to the new Norridgewock jail to await trial. At the trial, the verdict was not guilty, and he was acquitted.

The Palmyra records give Gridley's intention of marriage to Miss Betsy Parkman on Sept. 30, 1838. To Gridley and Betsy were born two daughters and a son. Gridley died in 1894, at the age of 81.

The Skowhegan Vital Records has a family for Alvin Parkman and the Palmyra Cemetery has Gridley and Betsey in the same lot as husband and wife. Eliza died 5 September 1947 in Bangor, Penobscot, Maine, at the age of 96. Eliza was the Second Vice-President of the Parkman Association in 1931.[180] Rinaldo died 6 January 1915 in Garland, Penobscot, Maine, at the age of 80, and was buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Milo, Piscataquis, Maine. Rinaldo's obituary read: "Mr. Parkman had not been in good health for several years, but was stricken suddenly with a paralytic shock on Sunday evening. Although his condition was critical, he was thought to be better on Wednesday, but passed away in a moment, as he had previously expressed a desire. Mr. Parkman was a home lover, quiet and retiring. Those who knew him best valued his loyal friendship and kindness of heart. He endeavored to live up to the standard of right as he saw it. The last exercises were held at the home on Saturday, Jan 9, Rev. S. G. Spear of Dexter officiated in his usual pleasing manner. The interment was in Evergreen Cemetery. The flowers were beautiful including three set pieces; one from his wife; one from the W. R. C. of which she was a prominent member; and one from the W. C. T. U. of which she was a prominent member. Two brothers of Mrs. Parkman were present: George Peavey of Boston and Charles Peavey, with his wife, from Exeter and a nephew, Glenn Morgan and Mrs. Morgan from Dexter. The Bearers were Alton Stillings, Ellery Stone, George W. Fall, and S. R. Came." In the family bible, his name is spelled "Renaldo".[181]

It may be that Teresa married a Morgan and had a son named Glenn. It may also be possible that this was his nephew through his wife, but the obituary specifically listed her brothers as "her" relatives and this nephew as "his" relative.[183]

Didama also married (2) Lowell Knowles 13 December 1845 in Corinna, Penobscot, Maine.[184] Didama had a daughter, Diantha, by Lowell. Both Didama and Diantha's last names were legally changed to Parkman on July 17, 1850.

Catherine died 1948 in Alamedo County, California. Clarence died 23 April 1940 in Fortuna, Humboldt, California, at the age of 87. Clarence resided in Fortuna, California and the vicinity for most of his adult life. He was a registered Republican and was first shown in the Humboldt County Register of Voters Book of 1896 as being 43 years of age, 5 ft. 11 ins. tall, with a light complexion, blue eyes and brown hair. He was a laborer when first coming to Humboldt County, but at the time of his first wife's death he had been a councilman of Fortuna for several years and the town marshall. He worked for the Northwestern Pacific Railway Co. as a railway tie inspector. He was a member of the Eel River Lodge, F. & A. M. of Fortuna from 1905 until his death. The obituary of his first wife, Amy, mentions that she was an "artist of considerable ability" and was known all over the county. There were no children by either marriage. Clarence's lodge members were the pallbearers at his funeral. Family members mentioned at the time of his death were his wife Catherine and nephew Frank Corrigan and wife from Oakland, California, probably relatives of his wife. Clarence and both of his wives are buried at the New Burg Cemetery (now Sunshine) in Fortuna, high on a hill overlooking the valley. Music at Clarence's funeral was the song "Going Down the Valley". Clarence was the twin brother of Mary.[211]

Abigail died 29 January 1899 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 76, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine.

Below is the transcription of the will of either Benjamin Parkman of Palmyra, Maine or his second wife, Abbie. It is in the possession of Eleanor (Parkman) Heath, the great-granddaughter of Benjamin. The will is unsigned and undated, but from the names in the will it can be determined from which family it was written. From the mention of a sewing chest and clothes from the closet to be given to Ella, it almost seems that it was the will of Abbie. In addition, no mention was made of the children of Benjamin's first wife. The first two lines (which were repeated) do not appear to be in the same hand, but may have been written earlier by Benjamin when he was in better health or another person entirely.

"That action is the best which procurres the most good for the greates number.

I want Ella to have my things in the Parlor chamber and closit my closes [clothes] she can devide among the family ---- that she dont want, I want Romanzo to have one fether bed and all the sheep Except Each my grandsone one lamb a peace, I want Flossie [her granddaughter, Florence?] to have one fether bed and pillows Romanzo to have the [steamer?] trunk, Ella the best table, [nel or mel] Campbell my [sewing or serving] chest the chest I want Ella to have one third of my real estate the rest my sone to have My dishes to be devided amongts the family by Ella and Romanzo"

Included in Eleanor's writing is: "On the back is written 'My part of the family tools is to be romanzos I want a decent buriel and stone to match fathers.' "

Eleanor's notes give a marriage date of Oct 30, 1853 in St. Albans for Benjamin and Abigail.

Asa's birth date was listed as October 18, 1813 in Eleanor Heath's notes from the Palmyra Town Records. His age on his death record gives a year of 1811, while his birth year is given as 1810 in the Wingate History. All sources agree on October 18th, though. It is unlikely that he was born in 1810 as that would put him only eight months after Benjamin was born. His age on his gravestone is consistent with a birth in 1813. Eleanor's notes say his stone has Feb 9th, not 8th, as his death date. His death record had the 8th.

She was born 3 August 1846 in Garland, Penobscot, Maine. She was the daughter of Furman Flanders and Mehitable [———?———] . Annie died 27 October 1922 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 76, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. Annie's age on her marriage record is not consistent with her birthdate. Her age in 1895 was given as 43. Her death record says that she was born in March of 1849. Her gravestone says she was born in 1847.[220] Augustine died

19 November 1936 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 91, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. Eleanor Heath's notes gave no death year for Augustine and a birth of 1846, instead of 1845 like the Wingate History. Perhaps there is no death date because she could not make it out or because he is not buried there or because it was never put on the stone. The latter seems the most likely scenario as his information would have been inscribed when his wife, Annie, was buried and he did not die until 14 years later. In the 1850 Palmyra census, his name is given as Augustus. He is listed as 5 years old, which would mean a birth year of 1844 or 1845. His obituary said that he was 91 years old when he died in 1936 so that gives a birth year of 1847. He lived his entire life in Palmyra, Maine and was its oldest resident before he died. He was a farmer.[221]

342. m viii. Sylvester Dana Parkman, born 5 January 1849 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. He married Mary [———?———] . Mary died 27 May 1918, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. Mary was buried with Sylvester in Palmyra and listed as his wife, but there is no death record for a Mary Parkman, wife of Sylvester, in the Maine State Archives. Sylvester's own death record said that he was single.[222] Sylvester died 28 March 1918 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 69, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. Sylvester was never married according to his death record in the Archives. He was listed as single, not widowed or divorced. This is wrong according to Eleanor Heath since his wife, Mary, is buried with him. According to Eleanor's notes, she died a couple of months after him, so he would have still been married at the time of his death.[223]

Dolly died 2 November 1899 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 76, and was buried in Spring Hill Cemetery, Palmyra, Somerset, Maine.

There is another child of Dolly's buried with her. He is given as James B. Hutcherson, son of Dolly (Hutcherson) Parkman, died Aug 15, 1863, age 21 years, 9 months, and 8 days. He must have been from her first marriage.

The 1850 Palmyra census lists two children with John and Dolly. They were James Hutchinson, age 9, and Ellen M. (last name illegible - not Hutchinson or Parkman), age 3.

543. f ii. Hattie F. Burrill, born in 1860. She married Gilman Smith 9 December 1883. [405] I checked every Smith marriage in Maine from 1892 to 1915 looking for grooms who had a father named Gilman. I only found one marriage in 1908, but the mother was listed as Mina Smith, not Hattie Burrill. The groom (Philip A. Smith) was born in Northfield, Maine which is in Washington County in eastern Maine. This location does not seem to match up to the Burrill family. Gilman D. Smith was also listed as being deceased. There was another groom in 1911 with Gilman "B." Smith and Mina as parents. He was also born in eastern Maine. The only other reference I found to a Gilman Smith was a groom named Gilman D. Smith who married for the third time in 1910. He was 51 years old at the time. This would have made him a similar age to Hattie Burrill. He was born in Canaan, Maine to Gilman O. Smith and Clara Bigelow. It is likely that this is the same Gilman Smith that married Hattie. Since I found no marriages for sons, either Gilman and Hattie had no children, had only daughters, or had sons who were never married or were married out of state.[406]

Before you go over the bridge turn to right coming from Dexter. William and Jane left the ferry road and moved to Jennings Corner in Dexter just above Spooner's Mills. They were buried at Morse's Corner in Corinna, Maine."

183. Hiram A.[5] Parkman (47.Susan[4], 11.Hannah[3], 3.Betty/Betsey[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 1 October 1821 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine. Hiram died 9 December 1880 in Aledo, Mercer, Illinois, at the age of 59.

In 1857, Hiram moved to Williamsport, Pennsylvania. After a two year residence in that city, he went west to Genneseo, Illinois. In 1860 he settled in Aledo, Illinois. The following was taken from the newspaper The Aledo Democrat, Mercer County, Illinois, Friday, 18 Dec 1890:

> Mr. Parkman had always been a robust man and his familiar form was rarely missed from his home duties and place of business, until one year ago when la grippe made him its victim. Since then he has been in feeble health. On Sunday, 19 Oct the weakness of flesh prevailed and for six weeks he was prostrated upon a bed of pain from which he was released and entered upon his everlasting rest Tuesday, 9 Dec at 5 a.m.
> Thirty-one years ago, when our city was in its infancy and business men were compelled to haul their merchandise across the rough country lying between here and Rock Island, Illinois. Mr. Parkman, bringing with him the undaunted courage born of life among the sturdy pines of his native hills, combined with an unfaltering adherence to honesty and business integrity, cast his lot with the little colony who had faith to believe in the future prosperity of Aledo. Through all the intervening years he as always was found true to the best interest of the community.
> During the first years of his residence of Aledo, and through the dark days of our national mourning, the tender heart of our departed friend was stirred to the depths for the bereaved and careworn around him. Although he did not keep step with the soldiers upon the battlefield, the defenseless families of those who were at the front were fed, clothed and sheltered by his kindly hand. To him no sacrifice was too great to make for the wives and children who wept around the fatherless hearthstone of home. Again we remember him in his determination that the brave defenders who had given their lives for their country should be fittingly honored by the people.
> With him, to plan was to act. He devoted all his time to the work. He patiently journeyed through the county gathering tokens of love and patriotism until all were crystallized into the beautiful, enduring marble shaft engraved with the names of the honored dead. So strong was his devotion to public interest that on his bed of pain his first inquiry would always be to those who came, "'What are they doing outside?"

He married Almira Richardson 21 April 1850. She was born 5 October 1821 in Belgrade, Kennebec, Maine. She was the daughter of Silas Richardson and Fanny Merchant. Almira died 1 May 1908 in Aledo, Mercer, Illinois, at the age of 86.

The following was taken from the newspaper The Aledo Democrat, Mercer County, Illinois:

At the age of seven she moved to Canaan, Maine. After her husband's death, she continued to reside with her son, Eugene, and his family until her death, which occurred 1 May 1908 at 1:30 a.m.

"Noiselessly as the springtime, Her crown of verdure weaves, And all the trees on all the hills Open their thousand leaves." In the silent watches of the night passed into joy and light of immortal springtime the spirit of Mrs. Parkman. For more than 86 years she sought the highest and best road for herself and loved ones. She stood ever ready to encourage and help the sick and afflicted.

From her youth she loved books. She strove for intellectual attainments for herself and children. She was ever ready to identify herself with every movement for the culture and moral elevation of the community. As a young woman she was united with the Christian Church. With the organization of the Congregational Church in Aledo she became a member of the church social society. She was a member of the Columbian Club from its beginning.

During her lifetime she visited many of the large cities in the country, Washington, D.C., New York City, New York, and Boston, Ma as well as many other eastern cities and historical places from there to the west coast. Her three children were present at her death. She leaves seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at home 3 May 1908 at 2:30 p.m. conducted by Rev. T. S. Pittenger. She was laid to rest in the Aledo Cemetery.

The following is from the newspaper, The Lowell Daily Courier, May 7, 1884:

> Albert F. Quimby, about 45 years of age, shot himself in the temple with a small revolver some time yesterday forenoon or Monday night, in his room at the place where he boards, with the family of William Hodge, corner of Chelmsford and Howard Streets. No report of the revolver was heard, and the fact that he shot himself was not discovered until somebody went to his room Tuesday noon.
> A few years ago Quimby kept a stable with his brother Alonzo on Howard Street, who is now a farmer in East Chelmsford, but since then he had been in the employ of George L. Huntoon on Middlesex Street. He was discharged on account of intemperate habits six months ago, and since then he has been despondent and acted very strangely.

Monday he borrowed the revolver, which is a 22-100 calibre, from one of the men at Huntoon's stable, saying he was going to Providence to look for work and wanted it with him. He was married, his wife having left him on account of his dissolute habits. He also leaves two children, married daughters, residing in Centralville [a section of Lowell]. Granville served during the Civil War. When he enlisted he was a farmer. After he was discharged, he was a carpenter. He lived in Palmyra, Calais, and Lewiston, Maine; Island Pond, Vermont, then Palmyra and Pittsfield, Maine; Island Pond, Vermont again and finally Manchester, New Hampshire. He died at the Togus Veterans Hospital in Chelsea, Maine.

His name was spelled "Grandville McLure" on his Civil War Enlistment Record. Granville enlisted on March 20, 1865 and was mustered in the same day in Augusta, Maine. He served in Co. K, 14th Infantry as a private. He was honorably discharged on August 28, 1865 in Georgia. At the time of his enlistment, he was 18 years old, five feet, eleven inches tall with light hair and complexion, and blue eyes.

Since his birth year (1849) is only sixteen years before his enlistment, he must have lied about his age in order to serve.

310. Sidney W.[5] Parkman[609] (76.Orrison[4], 19.Daniel[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 29 November 1836 in Garland, Penobscot, Maine. Sidney died 24 May 1897 in Cornville, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 60.

There is a clipping from an unknown source in a family bible that describes Sidney's headstone and it says that he died in 1897, aged 60 years and 8 months. His death record in the Archives says he died in 1899, aged 60 years, 5 months, and 28 days. It was filed with the 1899 records which lends some corroboration to year of 1899. There is also a nearly identical death record filed in 1897 that gives his death as 1897. The family's birth written in the same bible gives his birth as 29 November 1836. He would have had to have died in July of 1897 to be 60 years and 8 months at his death. Since both sets of records have the same month and day for both his birth and death, the most likely explanation is that both records were partially wrong. He would have been born in 1836 and died in 1897 aged 60 years, 5 months, and 28 days.

He married Adeline Russell[610] 17 January 1864 in Garland, Penobscot, Maine. She was born 24 July 1839 in Dexter, Penobscot, Maine. She was the daughter of Herman Russell and Mary Fogg. 323. Urban R.[5] Parkman[616] (80.Daniel[4], 19.Daniel[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born about 1858 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine.

The California Death Index lists an Urban K. Parkman who died in San Diego County on October 2, 1922 at the age of 66. Urban Parkman would seem to be a pretty uncommon name and the middle initials (K and R) look very similar to each other on records. One could be misinterpreted as the other. The age of 66 at death is close to the estimated birthdate of 1858. The evidence is circumstantial, but if Urban (and all his family) moved to California around the turn of the century, it would also explain why there are no records of him or his children in the state of Maine after the early part of the 20th century.

Ira's marriage records give his age as having been born around 1873, but his death record says he was 64 years, 2 months, and 24 days old on March 14, 1935 which would mean he was born December 23, 1870.[620] I found no children's births, nor a death for Maud, in the state of Maine.[621]

Orin (also known by his middle name, Alonzo) is the person who founded the Parkman Association and started the Parkman Reunion which now meets yearly on the second Sunday of August. He was the President of the Parkman Association the first year - 1923.

He served in Company K, 22nd Infantry with his brother, Frank. His Civil War Service Card lists him as five feet, ten and one half inches tall with a dark complexion, dark eyes, and dark hair. He was a farmer. He enlisted on September 10, 1862 and he left the service on August 2, 1863 in order to care for the sick at Union City, Indiana, including his brother Frank. Orin held the rank of Corporal.

Before leaving for the war, Orin drew up and signed a paper giving his father the power to take care of Orin's farm and estate, up to, and including, selling it if Benjamin thought it was in Orin's best interest. It also gave Benjamin the right to collect on Orin's promissory notes and to pay off Orin's debts if the need arose. What is interesting is that it is dated May 1, 1861, just after hostilities had broken out between the North and the South. It was another 1 1/2 years before Orin actually went to war. This signature is from that document.

He married (1) Esther McLure[627] 6 January 1864 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine. She was born 22 June 1836 in Cornville, Somerset, Maine. She was the daughter of Jedediah McClure and Susan Tuttle. Esther died 22 June 1893 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 57, and was buried in St. Albans Village Cemetery, St. Albans, Somerset, Maine. She is the woman with Orin in the picture above. It was possibly taken in the 1880's.

Tracy and Mary Tibbetts. Ellen died 18 October 1921 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 72, and was buried in St. Albans Village Cemetery, St. Albans, Somerset, Maine.

This picture is of Orin and his second wife, Ellen. It was taken around 1895. He is noticeably older than the prior picture. Perhaps there is more than 10 - 15 years between the times they were taken.

330. Henry Orison[5] Parkman[629] (82.Benjamin[4], 20.John[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 16 February 1847 in Palmyra, Somerset, Maine. Henry died 8 December 1928 in Belgrade, Kennebec, Maine, at the age of 81. Henry lived in Belgrade. His death record says that he was born on February 16th, but did not give a year. He was listed as 78 years old on his death record which would put his birth in 1850. There was an H. O. Parkman from Carmel, Maine who married a Mrs. May A. King in Carmel on May 1, 1886. It is possible that this was Henry. He attended the first Parkman Association Meeting in 1923.

[645] Clarence died in 1914 in Bangor, Penobscot, Maine, at the age of 43 or 44. The birth location and the month of Clarence's death are illegible on his death record. His age is given as 44 years, 4 months, and 7 days, but this would mean that he would have to have been born earlier than October of 1870. Four months past his birth and 44 years of age would be in February of 1915. Either his birthdate from the Wingate History or his death record has incorrect information. The day of his death was the 7th, which is also inconsistent with his age and birthdate. There were no children born in Maine to Clarence from 1892 until his death in 1914.[646]

There was a death record in the Maine State Archives for a Clara A. Gullifer, who died June 2, 1913 in Auburn, Maine. She was listed as the wife of James M. Gullifer. Her parents, however, were listed as Joel Wright and Mary Shelton. In addition, her age was given as 75 years old and our Clarinda would only have been 67. Finally, Clarinda is listed as deceased on her son, Fred's, marriage record when he got married in 1909. This is most likely not our Clarinda, but she is close to matching up. Ardell Lynds who has done research into Gullifers, believes that this Clara was the wife of James A. Gullifer of Pittsfield, Maine and not our Clarinda.

Our Clarinda married James Gullifer[1081]. He was born in Winslow, Kennebec, Maine. James died before 18 October 1896. James was a farmer. Clarinda and James lived in Winslow, Maine.

540. Nathaniel L.[6] Priest[1139] (174.Joel, Jr.[5], 42.Betsey[4], 8.Noah[3], 3.Betty/Betsey[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 9 December 1876 in Greenbush, Penobscot, Maine. Nathaniel died 25 August 1938 in Boston, Suffolk, Massachusetts, at the age of 61, and was buried in Bradley Road Cemetery, Milford, Penobscot, Maine. Nathaniel was a mail carrier. He was named "Joel Nathaniel" on his mother's pension records, but he was called Nathaniel or Nat. His middle name might have been Lamb. He died from cancer.

Nathaniel Priest was a mail carrier in the Milford, Maine area. He had a large area to cover and drove a car to deliver the mail. There was one house on his route where an old man lived alone with a dog. This man was cruel to the dog, hitting it, swearing at it, kicking it, etc. The dog was afraid of the man and was always cowering from people, even Nat when he would try to pet the dog. Nat Priest was a kind man and an animal lover and was very bothered by this. One day when Nat was delivering mail to this house, the man was being cruel to the dog. Nat asked the old man if he would sell the dog. The man said, "Yes" then smiled and named an exorbitant price, roughly half of Nat's weekly salary. Nat could see this was how it had to be, and so he agreed. He came home that day with the dog. At first the dog was as terrified of Nat and his family as he had been of his first owner. Gradually, though, he came to love and trust Nat, and became completely devoted to him. Nat's wife, Hattie, said she had never seen an animal as attached to a human as this dog was to Nat. Nat named the dog Happy. This is Nat and Happy in the undated picture above.

He married (1) Charlotte P. (Spencer) Curtis[1140] 28 August 1898 in Greenbush, Penobscot, Maine. She was born 1871/1872 in Lowell, Penobscot, Maine. She was the daughter of James Spencer and Emma Kimball.

She was the daughter of Hartwell Peavey and Addie Gerald. Berle died 16 September 1969 in Skowhegan, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 74.[1146] Don died 17 January 1960 in Canaan, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 70. It is not known if Don was the first or second child. His birth just prior to 1892, when Maine started requiring birth records be kept, would seem to place him second, with the other child born first. The birth records for the other two siblings had listed them as the third and fourth children, respectively. I found no children born in Maine to Don and Berle through 1936.[1147]

545. Nettie M.[6] Burrill[1150] (176.Humphrey[5], 43.Polly[4], 8.Noah[3], 3.Betty/Betsey[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 1870 in Canaan, Somerset, Maine. Nettie's birthplace is given as Canaan on all of her children's birth records. It is given as Skowhegan on her son, Walter's marriage record.

She married (1) Charles W. Crommett[1151]. He was born 1853/1854. He was the son of John Crommett and Melissa Leavitt. Charles died 30 March 1908 in Canaan, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 55. Is this Charles any relation to the Melissa Crummett who married Humphrey Burrill? (See Number 176 above.)

His birthplace is given on various records as Windsor, Patten, Clinton, and "No. 5 Range 5". If the last one is supposed to mean T2 R5, this would be Parmachenee Township. Although Windsor and Clinton are at opposite ends of Kennebec county, Patten is in northern Penobscot County and Parmachenee Township is in the extreme northwestern corner of Oxford County, on the New Hampshire border. These are three widely separated areas. Three of these locations are given on his third, fourth, and fifth children's birth records, so it is not as if the person reporting the information would be unsure of the town.

It is possible, though, that Frank was one of the two children born before 1892.[1155]

The following was written by Russell's daughter, Elva, and was titled "My Most Unforgettable Character:

My father was born 02/05/1843 in Corinna, Maine. He lived on a small farm with three brothers and four sisters. Part of the year he attended school, and the rest of the year he worked with his father on the farm. For amusement they went to singing school, spelling bees and husking bees. They traveled to these affairs on a sled drawn by oxen.

When the Civil War broke out a call came for volunteers, he enlisted for three months in Company F 6th Maine, and took part in many battles. He was wounded in the right leg and returned home. As the war increased in intensity he was drafted into Company G 16th Maine, where he served until the end of the war. I do not know just what battles he was in, as he didn't care to talk about them. He was wounded in the right leg again, and laid several days on the battlefield before being found. The doctors wanted to amputate, as blood poison had developed, but he fought so strenuously that they treated and saved the leg. Later he was taken prisoner and sent to Libby Prison in Richmond, Virginia for several weeks, and then exchanged. This was the hardest part of the war for him, as they nearly starved, abused in many ways besides the very unsanitary conditions.

One night he and three other soldiers, after they had been relieved of sentry duty, were very tired and laid down in a secluded spot to sleep. When they awoke in the morning they were alone as the company had been ordered to march during the night and no one had called them. They started to follow, but the others moved so slowly and stopped so often to rest, that my father, who was a very impatient man, walked on alone and caught up with his outfit before the next morning. The others came strolling in three days later. They wore their canteen under their left arm close to their heart. A bullet went through his coat and lodged between the canteen and his body. When the Chaplain came to him, and saw what a narrow escape he had, he said, "You were saved for some particular purpose." He always remembered that and had a different feeling about life after that.

After one battle they found a man on the battlefield moaning and begging someone to get him to a hospital. "I've been shot," he said. "I can feel the blood running down my leg." He was a very large man, much larger than the men who were trying to help him. It was quite a task to move up the hill to the hospital. When the doctor examined him they found that a bullet had punctured his canteen and it was water running down his leg.

After the war he returned home to try farming and to marry a Maine girl. He became a little lax about keeping the woodbox filled, and my mother, who had small children to care for, got tired of carrying the wood herself. So one day when my father came in from the field for his noonday meal, he found the kettles with the vegetables in them sitting on the porch in the sun. He went inside to find out the reason and my mother said, "There was no wood in the woodbox so I did the next best thing. I am using the sun to cook the food." My father never forgot that lesson and always made sure the woodbox was kept filled.

In the late seventies [1870's] there was a depression. His farm buildings burned flat. There were no jobs so he decided to go west to the mine fields. He left his wife and children in a small house in Newport [Maine], to wait until he had earned enough to send for them. Four years later he had earned enough to pay off his debts, the train fare he had borrowed, and to send for his family. Another daughter was born, and when she was a year old there was an epidemic of diphtheria, and the baby and two boys died in one week. The oldest, George, had been a great favorite with the miners, and the day of his funeral they closed the mines and forty miners marched to the grave.

A short time later I was born, then a year and a half later, another boy. We lived in a log cabin high in the Rockies near several abandoned mine shafts. My father got a big dog to accompany me when I went out to play to guard me from falling into a mine. The night of my second birthday my mother died of pneumonia. Soon after her death, father sent us children east to live with relatives and to go to school. Father continued to work in the mines and prospect for minerals.

In 1898 during the big gold rush to the Yukon he joined a group of miners and headed north hoping to make his claim. The trip was a very hazardous one and many a miner lost his life on the trip. They passed through the rough and dangerous twenty-eight miles of the Chilkoot Pass. One place was so steep, 3500 feet high, that a man with a pack only accomplished it with the greatest of difficulty. Some time before my father arrived there, two men from Maine had rigged ropes by which a man's pack was drawn up by the weight of another pack sliding down the other side. They charged a very little fee and made more money right there than most men who reached the gold fields. Another very dangerous part was shooting the Whitehorse Rapids in a canoe. Their lives depended upon perfect timing. When the guide would shout "Right" or "Left" a second delay might have meant death to all in the canoe. He panned out quite a lot of gold, which averaged about the same as wages in the States after the expenses were taken out. He returned to the States about two years later by boat to Seattle.

My next letter was from Everett, Washington where he was working on top of a mountain. The cabin they were living in had long bolts to fasten it to the solid rock, otherwise the wind might have blown it off the mountaintop. The outhouses were all on the lower level. One day two men were in one of them when they had a snow slide which completely buried the building. It took many hours of shoveling to get the men out. While he was there he threw his shoulder out of joint. It was a mile and a half down the winding road to the village where the doctor lived although he could see the doctor's house from the cabin door. It was terribly painful so he sat down and slid down over the steep cliff of the mountain to the doctor to get his shoulder set.

Another time he was riding on a train along the Platte River in Nebraska when the river overflowed its banks and flooded the tracks so deeply that it put the fire out under the engine. They were stranded there until the next day when the crest of the flood had passed and they were rescued. One afternoon he was walking up a dry creek to the top of a mountain. While up there they had a cloudburst and he was walking the river bank to get back to the foot of the mountain and he saw buildings, logs, and even a mule being carried by by the rushing water.

A few days after we were in the east and had received the news of the San Francisco earthquake, I received a letter from father, dated before the earthquake, saying he was headed for San Francisco. I was still wondering where father was and if he was still alive when I looked out the window and saw him coming up the walk. He told me about his experiences, how he had arrived in San Francisco in the afternoon, registered at the St. Francis Hotel, and left his trunk in the room. He then left for a visit about twenty miles out of town. The next morning during the train ride into the city, they could see heavy smoke on the skyline. Upon arriving at the station they saw a roaring inferno and learned it had been started by a terrible earthquake in the early hours of the morning. The St. Francis Hotel was the first to be completely destroyed. During the day my father, with hundreds of others, was walking around the streets. Being a horse lover he stopped to admire a beautiful pair of work horses hitched to a wagon. Suddenly, for no reason, he left and hurried across the street. Just as he reached the other curb he heard a terrific explosion. The gas main directly beneath where he had been standing blew up. The pair of horses were blown to bits.

Father stayed in Maine to care for his son who had developed tuberculosis. A year later he took his son to California to see if the climate would help; as it didn't, they returned to Maine. After his son died, Father said Florida was the only state he had never visited so he and a minister who was also a member of the G.A.R. planned a winter in Florida. Just before they were to leave the minister died so Father came to Calais [Maine] and spent the winter with us.

Once, when he was in the southwest many years ago, he was at a place where everyone was having his fortune told. The woman said, "You are going to die in the east." He replied, "I probably will, as I was born there, and most of my family live there." She said, "I mean farther east than you have ever been." He mentioned this several times after he came to Calais to live. He told me a short time before his death that he had no fear of the future, but just dreaded the moment of change.

He said whenever he worked with a crew of men they always called him Captain. It seemed a strange nickname for him, as he was quiet, gentile, gentle and an unassuming man. He never told others what they should do, nor did he encourage anyone to tell him what to do. He died at the age of 79 and was buried in Corinna, Maine in his grandfather's lot.

My doctor in Bangor, who knew father as a boy, said to him, "Well, Frank, you must know the Rocky Mountains pretty well." My father replied, "Oh no, only that part between the Canadian and Mexican borders." I was amused at the doctor's expression. He had evidently forgotten that the Rockies extend into both Canada and Mexico.

He married Caroline Seavey Lovejoy[1262] 19 March 1870 in Dexter, Penobscot, Maine. She was born 6 November 1845 in Wilton, Hillsborough, New Hampshire. She was the daughter of Aladin Lovejoy and Lucy Perkins Lampson. Caroline died 9 January 1919 in Corinna, Penobscot, Maine, at the age of 73. 653. Clara Roxana[6] Quimby[1270] (223.Alonzo[5], 56.Hannah[4], 13.Noah[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 6 August 1850 in Lowell, Middlesex, Massachusetts. Clara died 17 July 1883 in Rhode Island, at the age of 32.

Clara's birth information is based upon the following: A family Bible lists Clara as born in 1862, but the same Bible notes she died in 1883 at the age of 32. Since she died in July and was born in August, she would have been just shy of her 33rd birthday. This gives a birth year of 1850. This is also consistent with her age on her marriage record of March 12, 1873, when she said she was 20. As for her birth location, her child, Minnie's, death record says that Clara was born in Providence, Rhode Island, however, Minnie's birth record and Clara's marriage record both say Clara was born in Lowell, Massachusetts.

She married Charles Edward Lewis[1271] 12 March 1873 in Providence, Providence, Rhode Island. He was born 2 April 1851 in Providence, Providence, Rhode Island. He was the son of Denison P. Lewis and Susan Bishop. Charles died 5 December 1922 in Rhode Island, at the age of 71.

671. Lailand Everett[6] Parkman[1285] (238.Philander[5], 59.Everett[4], 13.Noah[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 4 September 1869 in Ripley, Somerset, Maine. Lailand died 18 June 1935 in New Britain, Hartford, Connecticut, at the age of 65, and was buried in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain, Hartford, Connecticut.

courtesy of Joseph Johnson

Lailand's birth is given as 1869 in the International Genealogy Index, on his gravestone, on his death record and per Thirma Blethen, his granddaughter. His birth year is 1870 per his daughter, Mabel Parkman. His younger brother, Malcolm, was born in January of 1871 per his (Malcolm's) death record. Assuming this is correct, Lailand could not have been born in September of 1870 since it was only four months prior to Malcolm's birth. His death record and his gravestone spell his name "Leland". It also lists his place of birth as St. Albans, Maine.

The birth records of his children give his residences as: Ripley, Maine; Auburn, Maine; St. Albans, Maine; Worcester, Massachusetts; Clinton, Massachusetts; Worcester, Massachusetts; Southbridge, Massachusetts. In 1896 and 1898 he was living in Worcester, Massachusetts and working for Rice & Griffin Manufacturing Co. By 1901 he had moved to Southbridge, Massachusetts where he was a sashmaker. Where he lived from 1907 to 1912 is unknown. In 1912 he was living in Springfield, Massachusetts and he worked for Hampden Lumber Co. His son George was also living with Lailand and working at the same place.

By 1916, Lailand had left Springfield. Where he lived from 1912 to 1919 is not known. He was living in Holyoke, Massachusetts in September of 1919. He was living in New Britain, Connecticut in 1920 and 1926 (and probably the years in between.) He was a woodworker. The house he was living in (46 Pearl St.) no longer exists; it was torn down to build a highway (Rt. 72, now Rt. 9.) The last 15 years of his life he lived in New Britain, Connecticut. His occupation was given on various records as sashmaker, woodworker, and cabinet maker. His death was brought on by a stroke that paralyzed him.

He married (1) Georgianna Nelson[1286] 8 January 1890 in Lewiston, Androscoggin, Maine. She was born 12 March 1867 in Oxford, Oxford, Maine. She was the daughter of G. B. Nelson and Angela [———?———] . Georgianna died 1 April 1893 in Auburn, Androscoggin, Maine, at the age of 26, and was buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Auburn, Androscoggin, Maine.

George died 7 July 1964 in Rhode Island, at the age of 71. George was First Vice-President of the Parkman Association in 1955 and 1956. He lived in Providence, Rhode Island. His middle name was given as Nathan on his birth record.[1287]

Lailand married (2) Elizabeth Victoria Johnston[1288] 13 December 1893 in Auburn, Androscoggin, Maine. She was born 28 November 1867 in Nashwaaksis, New Brunswick, Canada. She was the daughter of James Johnston and Cynthia Waters Barker. Elizabeth died 8 October 1939 in Middletown, Middlesex, Connecticut, at the age of 71, and was buried in Pine Grove Cemetery, Middletown, Middlesex, Connecticut.

Joe Johnson has Fredericton, New Brunswick as her birth, while Judy Smuda found both Fredericton and East Douglas, New Brunswick on records relating to her. Nova Scotia was the birthplace given on the 1920 U.S. Census and two family members remember it being said that she was born there. The Provincial Archives of New Brunswick has a one line entry that lists Elizabeth's birth. It says she was born in Nashwaaksis (which is now part of Fredericton) and gives her middle name as Victoria. Nova Scotia has no record of her birth.

Elizabeth's death record and gravestone say she was born in 1866, but these are believed to be incorrect. She gave her age as 26 when she married in November of 1893. She would have had a birthday just a month prior to this and would presumably know her own age. The record that New Brunswick has for her also lists a birth year of 1867. This record was also recorded while Elizabeth was still alive, presumably when she was applying for an old age pension. She died just prior to her birthday and the death record might have incorrectly recorded her age as one year greater. Working backwards from her date of death, this would give a birth year of 1866, instead of 1867. Death records tend to be the least reliable of the vital records kept for people because they are filled out based on information given by someone who knew the deceased, but who may not be familiar with every date and location. The informant is also usually under a great deal of stress because of the loss of a loved one.

Elizabeth grew up on the St. John River and used to skate on it in the winter. According to her grandson, Verne Cummings, she learned to skate by using a chair on the ice. She had red hair.

Philona was the twin sister of Philena. She taught school for several years. Her obituary does not say where she died except that it was a local hospital. She was Secretary/Treasurer of the Parkman Association in 1940, 1941, 1942, and 1945. There were no Parkman Association Meetings in 1943 or 1944 because of gas rationing during World War II. She attended the first Parkman Association Meeting in 1923.

She married Frank A. Varney[1298] 12 February 1896 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine. He was born 8 November 1874 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine. He was the son of Amasa Varney and Hannah Dunlap. Philena died 29 January 1956, at the age of 81. Philena is the twin sister of Philona. She had brown hair and blue eyes. Her brother died in 1950, but his obituary did not mention Philena as surviving him. It only mentioned Philona. We have Philena'a death in 1956. Based on the obituary, this could be wrong.

She married Ernest Henry Braley[1303] 31 October 1889 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine. He was born 12 October 1866/1867 in Mt. Desert, Hancock, Maine. He was the son of Samuel Braley and Emma Jane Ellis. Ernest died 19 March 1951 in Old Town, Penobscot, Maine, at the age of 81 or 82.

Ernest worked on the railroad for many years. He was a Section Foreman for some years and later an Engineer on the work train that was building the branch lines to Hartland and Harmony, Maine in 1939. Hope Horne, his granddaughter, wrote the following:

> In appearance Ernest Henry was a tall man, or perhaps he only appeared so to me, with a mane of premature white hair, and the merriest blue eyes you ever saw. He used to play the violin, or the "fiddle" as he called it. He played for all the barn dances far and near. His toes were tapping and his smile was warm, as he called out "The Lady of the Lake" and "Do-Si-Do." Everyone had such fun! Gramps, with his music transported them out of the "work-a-day" world, into a world where, just for a little while, you left your cares behind and did not think of tomorrow. Gramps later formed a group called "Gramp Braley's Merry Minstrelsies." He also put on amateur plays, such as "The Country Minister", "Tom Thumb", and many others.

Some records say that Ellen was born on Prince Edward Island. Her obituary said that she was born in Campbellton, New Brunswick. Her marriage record gave her birthplace as Bangor, Maine. It also listed her parents as Charles P. Thompson and Elizabeth Reid. Her obituary gave her parents' names as Peter Thompson and Sarah Inman. The "P." in Charles P. could stand for Peter, but the mother's names are quite different. It is possible that one of the women was her birth mother who died, and the other was a step-mother who raised her. At the time of her death she had 27 grandchildren and 54 great-grandchildren according to her obituary. She attended the first Parkman Association Meeting in 1923. Because her older sister was born Sep 10, 1882, it is unlikely that Adelle was born seven months later in 1883. I believe that listing the dates this way was simply a shortcut for the person who compiled the data and that Adelle was born in 1884.[1522]

Fred died 5 May 1943 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine, at the age of 72. His name might have been James Fred instead of Fred James. He married (1) Betsy M. Chamberlain[1630]; they divorced. She was born about 1869 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She was the daughter of John H. Chamberlain and Sultana Horn.

I found no death record for Betsey in Maine, although I did find marriages to Josiah Osborne in 1897 and Frank O'Brien in 1910 which gave me her parents' names. She is listed as Betsey on her daughter, Lena's, birth record and as Bessie on Lena's marriage and death records. She is listed as being born in Oakland, Maine on Lena's marriage record and in Palermo, Maine on Lena's death record. Her birthplace is listed as Oakland on her own marriage records.

1488. f ii. Lena May Gullifer, born 23 August 1893 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She married Charles O'Reilly 19 June 1909 in Waterville,

Kennebec, Maine. He was born about 1881 in North Vassalboro, Kennebec, Maine. He was the son of Patrick O'Reilly and Catherine [———?———] .[1632] Lena died 15 December 1909 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine, at the age of 16. Lena was listed as 17 when she married in June 1909 when she would not have been quite 16 from her birth in August of 1893. Since the 1893 birth record did not list a name and there is an age difference based on her wedding record it is quite possible that Fred and his first wife, Betsey, had three daughters. Lena's birth record would have to be missing from the Maine State Archives and no further mention of the girl born in August of 1893 would be available. Unless more evidence comes up to contradict Lena and the girl born in 1893 from being the same person, we will presume they are one and the same. It is interesting to note that her death record in December of 1909 lists her as 17 years and 4 months old meaning that she would have had to have been 16 at the time of her marriage 6 months earlier. Four months back from December is August, but the age would still be off by one year. Lena died from pulmonary tuberculosis.[1633]

Fred married (2) Bertha Estella Knox[1634] 18 October 1896 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She was born 31 March 1880 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She was the daughter of William Knox and Andora Fish. Bertha died 4 August 1938 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine, at the age of 58.

On Fred's marriage to Mercy it lists him as a widower so that means that Bertha must have died before that date. It also, however, lists it as only his second marriage. I later found Bertha's death in 1938. She remarried a Ulysses Golder. Fred's marriage record must be wrong.

1490. f iv. Estelle May Gullifer, born 26 August 1899 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine, died in infancy 15 October 1899 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. Estelle died of cholera infantum.[1636]

1492. f vi. Evelyn Gullifer, born about 1903 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She married (1) Stephen Gage 21 August 1920 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. He was born 19 January 1894 in Smithfield, Somerset, Maine. He was the son of Frank L. Gage and Martha Etta (Trask) Gage. Stephen died 29 January 1942 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine, at the age of 48. I found no birth record for Stephen in

Maine.[1637] Evelyn married (2) Frank Lester Gage 13 December 1952 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. He was born 22 January 1896 in Mercer, Somerset, Maine. He was the son of Frank L. Gage and Martha Etta (Trask) Gage.[1638] [1639]

Fred married (3) Mercy E. (Knox) Brown[1640] 18 December 1909 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She was born about 1865 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She was the daughter of Stephen Knox and Joanna Bickford. Mercy died before 13 April 1938. Fred's marriage to Martha in 1938 lists him as a widower. It is possible that this is referring to his second wife, but it probably means that Mercy died before 1938.

Fred married (4) Martha Etta (Trask) Gage[1641] 13 April 1938 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She was born about 1875 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine. She was the daughter of Andrew Jackson Trask and Mehitable Horn. Martha died 10 December 1951 in Oakland, Kennebec, Maine.

Martha'a marriage to Fred lists her as Etta Gullifer Gage and says it is her second marriage. Her maiden name, however, would have been Trask. She is listed as Martha Etta Gullifer on her death record. It was common for women to take their maiden names as their middle names, but that would mean a marriage to a Gullifer, then a Gage, and then to Fred Gullifer, which would be three marriages. Either the middle name Gullifer is in error or her number of marriages is in error. She is the mother of both Stephen and Frank Gage, the two husband's of Fred's daughter, Evelyn. Martha also married (1) Frank L. Gage. [1642]

Myrtle's last name is given as Bragdon on her marriage record (and her father's last name is Bragdon.) On her children's birth records, her last name is given as McDonald. Her marriage record said that it was her first marriage. There is a gap of over ten years between the marriage and the birth of the first child. Perhaps Elmer got married again to another woman named Myrtle, whose maiden name was McDonald and there was no marriage record in Maine for them. Her last name is given as Bragdon on her son, Clinton's marriage record. It is given as McDonald on her other two children's marriage records.

1159. Effie Nettie[7] Parkman[1732] (605.Edward[6], 194.Elbridge[5], 50.Joseph[4], 13.Noah[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 16 April 1878 in Troy, Waldo, Maine. Effie died 4 February 1938 in Troy, Waldo, Maine, at the age of 59.

The information presented for Effie and her second and third children are based on records for a Nettie Sikes. Effie's middle name was Nettie. A Nettie Call died Feb 4, 1938 in Troy, Maine and her birthdate and location match up exactly to the information on Effie's marriage record and Nettie Sikes is listed as the widow of Charles Call. The death record, however, lists her parents as Gilbert Sikes and Harriet James, while the marriage record says her parents were E. R. Parkman and Martha Small.

The birth records of the children of Charles G. Call list their mother as Effie on the first, did not find a second, Nettie Sikes on the third, and Effie on the fourth and fifth. This needs more research but for now we are presuming that Effie Nettie Parkman and Nettie Sikes are the same woman. Effie's mother Martha probably died before 1892 and perhaps her father could not care for her and she was taken in by Gilbert and Harriet Sikes. This is pure speculation, but it would cover all the available information. LATER INFORMATION: Theresa's marriage record lists her mother as Nettie Sites while her birth record lists her mother as Effie N. Parkman, further proof that they were the same woman.

Effie married Charles G. Call[1733] 6 February 1897 in Burnham, Waldo, Maine. He was born 22 August 1858 in Troy, Waldo, Maine. He was the son of Reuben Call and Isabelle C. Coffin. Charles died 24 March 1925 in Troy, Waldo, Maine, at the age of 66.

Frank worked for the Boston, Massachusetts Construction Department before retiring from his job as Supervising Line Foreman in 1952. While doing "fixit" jobs for the people in the handicapped organization (Indoor Sports) that his wife volunteered for, a person asked him to fix a pair of crude reaching tongs she had. Frank saw how he could redesign them to work much better. He built a new pair and gave them to the woman. She was delighted with them and showed them to others. Soon, Frank was making many pairs of his tongs. Eventually, he and Grace created Mom's Sunbeam Products to sell Frank's tongs. They received orders from 44 states, Europe, and South America. They even saw their tongs used on the Arthur Godfrey program and the Jackie Gleason show. There is a feature article on Frank and Grace in the December, 1959 edition of Topic Magazine on pages 28 and 29. It goes into more detail.

Grace and Frank lived in Malden, Massachusetts. She worked with handicapped residents of Malden. She won numerous awards for her fine hairpin lace that she made on looms that Frank built for her. She gave the credit for her success to the "perfect construction" of the looms.

Glen resided in St. Albans, Maine and Bingham, Maine where he owned a portable saw mill. In 1919 he moved to Brewer, Maine where he owned and operated Footman's Dairy. He started delivering 280 quarts of milk daily by horse and buggy. The business grew to be the third largest within the state, with a fleet of thirty trucks. After retirement he resided winters in Tucson, Arizona and summers in Greenville, Maine. This photo of Glen and Hattie was taken in the 1940s.

27 June 1954 in Eliot, York, Maine, at the age of 69, and was buried in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Eliot, York, Maine.

On their birth records, Frank, Jr. is listed as the third child of Frank and Rose, but Edwin/Elwin is listed as the second. It is possible that they had two children before Frank, Jr. who died. One clerk may have counted him as the third child, but another clerk counted Edwin as the second because only Frank, Jr. was living. This is all speculation. I found no other children born to Frank and Rose in Maine, nor did I find their marriage record in Maine. Frank was an electrician. He lived in Presque Isle, Milo, Auburn, and Eliot (all Maine.) He lived in Eliot for the last 14 years of his life.

He married (1) Rose E. Randall[1808] before 1909. She was born 6 January 1877 in Freeman, Franklin, Maine. She was the daughter of William D. Randall and Sarah J. Foster. Rose died 28 November 1921 in Auburn, Androscoggin, Maine, at the age of 44, and was buried in Farmington, Franklin, Maine. Rose was a school teacher.

Leila was a beautician.[1809] I found no birth records for children of Frank and Leila in Maine.[1810]

1667. m ii. Edwin/Elwin R. Gerry, born 21 February 1911 in Milo, Piscataquis, Maine, died in infancy 20 November 1911 in Herman, Penobscot, Maine. This child's name is Edwin on his birth record and Elwin on his death record. He died of the whooping cough.[1811]

I did not find a birth record for Gladys in the Maine State Archives. She was listed as 19 at the time of her marriage. This gives a birth year of 1927 or 1928. A sister of hers was born in 1928, and I checked several years on either side of this, but I found Mertie died 23 April 1926 in Milo, Piscataquis, Maine, at the age of 37, and was buried in Gould Cemetery, Milo, Piscataquis, Maine. Mertie's birth location was given as Hudson on her marriage record, and the birth records of her first and third children. It was given as Alton, Maine on her second child's birth record and on her death record. She died of pneumonia. She married Arthur Ami McKusick[1818] 2 October 1910 in Milo, Penobscot, Maine. Ida appears to have had one more child than those listed here, either with Frank Brown or Arnold Oakes. The first two Oakes children were numbered 1 and 2 because the clerk was not counting her children with Frank Brown. The third Oakes child's number was illegible. The fourth Oakes child is listed as the "5th and the 7th." The fifth Oakes child is given as the 8th child with six living. The sixth Oakes child is given as the 9th child with seven living. Since the fourth, fifth, and sixth Oakes children were numbered 7, 8, and 9 and only two Brown children were found, there has to have been another child born to Ida Gerry before the fourth Oakes child. There also has to be a death for one of her children other than the son we know about. It is possible that there was another child that died at birth and there was no record for it.

She married (1) Frank Edward Brown[1822] 10 February 1912 in Milo, Piscataquis, Maine. He was born 1884/1885 in New Brunswick, Canada. He was the son of Samuel Brown and Fannie Sitman. Frank's birth location was given as Queens County, Nova Scotia on his marriage record, but as New Brunswick on his two children's birth records and his daughter's marriage record.

Mabel died 20 August 1994 in Moodus, Middlesex, Connecticut, at the age of 91, and was buried in Mt. Parnassus Cemetery, East Haddam, Middlesex, Connecticut.

Mabel worked for Landers, Frary & Clark in New Britain, Connecticut making kitchen appliances; at the State Hospital in Bangor, Maine, where she met her first husband, Joe; and at the White Way laundry in Deep River, Connecticut. For most of her life she lived in East Haddam, Connecticut, but she also lived in Westbrook, Connecticut for several years. At this time, she worked for Cramer Company in Old Saybrook, Connecticut, making electrical timers.

She made her own butter, cheese, milk, bread, soap, donuts, and banana ice cream. She was famous for her pies. She canned over 400 jars of vegetables, fruits, and meats a year and was very thrifty. She also made quilts for all 16 of her grandchildren. She did not have running water until the early 1940's. When she was in her sixties, she got her drivers license. Once she had her license she went out and bought a 1967 Chevelle. She often complained of a pain in her side. During the middle part of her life, after having an X-ray, it was discovered that she had a needle floating around inside her body. She did not know how it got there, but she never had it removed. was listed as 55 years old on the birth record, and while this is possible, it is unlikely. It is more likely that this was either a grandchild of theirs or an adoption of someone else's child. Also indicating that this was not a regular birth record is that all other information, such as months of pregnancy, other children living, etc. was missing. This birth record, though, was typed up and certified by H. E. Whalen, M.D., Dexter, Maine and Eleanor H. Smith, Clerk of Dexter on September 26, 1945.[1952]

Vida was listed as 23 on her marriage record (Sep 18, 1907). Either her age or her brother George's birth date that was given on his death record was wrong because nine months on either side of George's birth would have made Vida either 22 or 24 on her wedding day. During the Depression, Earl cut pulp wood for $1.00 a cord. He was not given cash, but the equivalent of a voucher that he exchanged for food at Glen Hanson's store in Hartland, Maine. Glen was the nephew of George Emery, who was Earl's boss. Earl walked 16 miles a day to earn his $1.00 a cord. When the Depression started, Earl and his wife, Pearl, were living in St. Albans Village on the road to Hartland. This house was traded for a farm in St. Albans. They had a garden, raised potatoes, had a horse, a cow, hens, and a pig.

Before the Depression, Earl taught school, took up barbering, and worked for Charles Batcheldor in St. Albans (across from the Town Hall) in the shoe factory. Also prior to the Depression, Earl and Pearl went into the Silver Fox business and lost all of their investment. After the Depression, Earl worked at the Hartland Tannery for a few years. He retired as foreman from the Ell Hill Ash Mill in Palmyra, Maine about 1959. He was Second Vice-President of the Parkman Association in 1952 and 1953. He was on the program committee in 1928. He attended the first Parkman Association Meeting in 1923.

He married Violet Pearl Hart[1972] 4 July 1914 in St. Albans, Somerset, Maine. She was born 21 March 1892 in Hartland, Somerset, Maine. She was the daughter of Sampson Hart and Thankful Woodbury. Violet died 3 January 1975 in Searsport, Waldo, Maine, at the age of 82, and was buried in Hartland, Somerset, Maine.

Before she married Earl, Pearl worked in the Waverly Woolen Mill in Pittsfield, Maine. She was a homemaker all her married life, except for brief periods when she and her daughters worked at Baxter's canning factory in St. Albans, Maine. She liked to crochet, knit, and she produced endless doilies, mittens, and socks. She also wove rugs and tote bags on her loom. She attended the first Parkman Association Meeting in 1923. She and Earl hosted the 36th Parkman Association Meeting in 1960.

I did not find a birth record in Maine for her. Janet's age was given as 18 when she married on May 21, 1938. Since her sister, Doris, was born in 1920, Janet would seem to have been born in 1919, probably in the summer. However, Doris was specifically listed on her birth record as the second child (second living) of her parents. In addition, the order of their births that I was originally given had Janet born after Doris. Lloyd was listed as the fourth child (fourth living) on his birth record. Janet's marriage record gives Brewer, Maine as her place of birth, while the birth record of her son, Daniel, gives it as Watertown, Massachusetts. Her age on her son's birth record was 20, which is consistent with her age on her wedding record.

She married Edward Bubbles[1992] 21 May 1938 in Newport, Penobscot, Maine. He was born 1914/1915 in Cleveland, Ohio. He was the son of Daniel Bubbles. Edward was a shoeworker. He was living in Augusta, Maine in 1938 and Freeport, Maine in 1940. His marriage record did not give his mother's name. Both his parents were born in Lithuania. The surname "Bubbles" is probably an anglicized or phonetic spelling of the original Lithuanian surname

He was the son of Everett Russell Henderson and Alice Helen Philpot. Ralph died 10 May 1959 in Milo, Piscataquis, Maine, at the age of 49, and was buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Milo, Piscataquis, Maine.

Ralph went by his middle name, Elmo. He was a lifelong resident of Milo, Maine. He and Eleanor hosted the 33rd Parkman Association Meeting in 1957. He died when the aircraft he and another man, Leigh Washburn of Brownville Junction, were in crashed and overturned at Carey's Cove on the Sebec River two miles from Milo. The cause of the crash was a fuel shut off valve that had been closed. Investigators believed that it may have been inadvertently closed by Elmo, who was assumed to be the pilot. The plane had just taken off and was only a few hundred feet off the river when the engine stopped and the plane went into the river.

I found no marriages in Maine for the daughters and no grooms In Maine through 1955 with Noah as the father. There was a boy born February 23, 1920 in Bangor to Noah Downes and "Bessie Broder". There was no other Noah Downes found in the records and a marriage to a Bessie Broder was not found. The information given for Noah on this birth record is the same as that on the unnamed son's. Finally, Bessie Broder is phonetically similar to Jessie Bowden. I believe that this was the same couple and this boy (named _____ Noah Downes) was their fifth child. The birth record says that this boy was the fourth child for Noah and Bessie, but both Florence and the unnamed son were listed as Noah and Jessie's fourth children, so errors had already occurred in the numbering.

Fred is listed as 27, 29, and 30 for the three births and these ages are all consistent with Alfred's birthdate of Oct 17, 1917. No marriage record of either a Fred or Alfred marrying Caroline Rose was found. The Maine Marriage Index has no Rose, Carolyn or otherwise, marrying an Abbott. He married (1) Isabell M. Field[2175] 1 November 1906 in Waterville, Kennebec, Maine. She was born 19 November 1876 in Augusta, Kennebec, Maine. She was the daughter of Thomas Field and Inez Leavitt. Isabell died 19 May 1907 in Fairfield, Somerset, Maine, at the age of 30. Isabell died of ovarian cancer.

Edward married (2) Stella Libby[2176] 1 September 1908 in Waterville, Kennebec, Maine. She was born about 1882 in Illinois. She was the daughter of Frederick P. Libby and Jeanette P. Smith. Stella's middle initial was given as an "L" and as a "J". Her birth location was given as Meridian, Earlsville, and Evansville (all in Illinois.)

He married Maria F. Bellows[2179] 17 September 1905 in Waterville, Kennebec, Maine. She was born about 1882 in Groveton, Coos, New Hampshire. She was the daughter of Henry Elbridge and Marcia Ricker. Based on Maria's father's last name it appears that this is her second marriage even though the record lists it as her first. Eugene and Maria's children were born in the Shawmut section of Fairfield where they lived.

1449. Nettie F.[7] Jewell[2184] (971.Wallace[6], 454.Marcia[5], 131.Isaiah[4], 27.Daniel[3], 5.Rhoda[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 16 January 1883 in Fairfield, Somerset, Maine. The Whitman book has her born in 1883, but her age at her wedding was given as 18 which points to a birth in 1882 instead. She was not named in the Whitman book, she was listed as Nellie on the wedding record, and as Nettie on all subsequent records. One record had her middle initial as "F."

She married Walter Flint[2185] 25 December 1900 in Benton, Kennebec, Maine. He was born 29 March 1873 in Houlton, Aroostook, Maine. He was the son of Thomas Flint and Mary Leland. Walter died 22 June 1949 in Liberty, Waldo, Maine, at the age of 76, and was buried in Hunt Memorial Cemetery, Liberty, Waldo, Maine.

Walter appears to not have a middle name. Not even his obituary gave one. His death record says that he was born on November 3, 1873, but also gives his age as 76. He would have been only 75 in June of 1949 when he passed away. His obituary gave the birth as March 29, 1873 which matches his age on his death record. He was married to a Ruby Flint at the time of his death. He was an electrician and worked for Central Maine Power Company.

Eleanor, the daughter that followed her, and Moody were listed as the third, fourth and fifth children. There were no birth records at all in 1903 in Maine for Flints. Marjorie's birth record was filed many years later. It was on a more modern form and it was typed (all other records for this family were handwritten at the time.) It is very possible that a child was born in 1903 and no record was filed for it. I found no grooms with Walter and Nettie as parents marrying in Maine from 1916 to 1936 so the second child seems more likely to have been a girl.

2047. f iii. Eleanor Cushman Flint, born 13 August 1904 in Fairfield, Somerset, Maine. Eleanor was born in the Shawmut section of Fairfield. Her middle name was written as Cashman on her birth record, but was probably Cushman which was her mother's maiden name. I found no marriage in Maine for Eleanor, but I found no death for her through 1922 in Maine, either. She is not mentioned in her father's obituary.[2187]

2048. f iv. Mildred Flint, born 30 December 1907 in Fairfield, Somerset, Maine. Mildred was born in the Shawmut section of Fairfield. She was single and living in Kodiak, Alaska in 1949. This birth in 1907 was a girl, but it is also possible that Mildred was the missing child that was possible born in 1903.[2188]

The Whitman book had this specific birth date for Lucy, but her age on both of her marriage records contradicts the year, and each other. She was 19 for her first marriage which gives a probable birth year of 1883. She was 28 for her second marriage, which would place her birth somewhere between May of 1885 and May of 1886. I found no death for Lucy through 1955 in Maine.

She married (1) Perley W. Rogers[2194] 22 December 1902 in Madison, Somerset, Maine; they divorced. He was born about 1879. He was the son of William Smith Rogers and Eva V. Bartlett. Perley's birth location was given as: Lewiston, Maine; North Anson, Maine; Anson, Maine; Oskosh, Michigan; and Neenah, Wisconsin on various records. Lewiston was the only one that was given twice so perhaps that was where he was born. Perley married Bessie A. McKenney in 1912.

2054. m iii. son1 Rogers, born 5 April 1910 in Norridgewock, Somerset, Maine. This child was listed as the fourth, instead of the third. 2055. m iv. son2 Rogers, born 5 April 1911 in Norridgewock, Somerset, Maine. Even though the birth day is the same as the other son, this was a different record, with different information, and written in different handwriting. Lucy married (2) Albert Miles Flower[2199] 23 May 1914 in Pittsfield, Somerset, Maine. He was born about 1877 in Mars Hill, Aroostook, Maine. He was the son of Elijah Flower and Alice Clark. She married William H. Bickford[2201] 14 April 1901 in Kingsbury, Piscataquis, Maine. He was born 17 March 1878 in North Belgrade, Kennebec, Maine. He was the son of Frank Bickford and Margaret J. Smith. William died 11 June 1954 in Garland, Penobscot, Maine, at the age of 76, and was buried in Pingree Cemetery, Parkman, Piscataquis, Maine. [2202] Everett's middle name was listed as "Willie" on his birth record, but his father, William, was later listed as "Willie" on a record. Another record had Willis as Everett's middle name. It would seem more likely that his middle name was William after his father. There is a birth record for a Hildon Everett Bickford born on September 12, 1930 in Guilford, Maine. The record, however, is missing almost all other information that is normally on these types of records. In addition, even though the parents' names are given as Everett William Bickford and Lucy Mary Smart, it said that they were 43 and 49 years old, respectively. Everett would have been only 28 on this date and Lucy would have been only 35.[2203]

William's death record was very difficult to read. I could not make out his birthdate, parents, informant, or spouse. The death date and location presented here are probably correct. Based on this (1917?) photo of George in what appears to be a World War I uniform, he probably served during that war. He married Bessie S. She was born 1923/1924 in Easton, Aroostook, Maine. She is the daughter of Raymond G. Budrow and Maude Alice Watson. She married Edmond Robert Violett[2485] 27 May 1921. He was born 1894/1895 in Fort Kent, Aroostook, Maine. He was the son of Cyrille Violett and Isabelle Smith.

Edmond's last name (and that of his father) was spelled Violett on Edmond's marriage record. All of his children's birth records had their last names (and his) as Violette. I did not find his birth record in Maine, but I did find the birth of a Herbert Violette to the same parents on December 23, 1894 in Fort Kent, Maine. Herbert was the second child. I also found births for the first and fourth children. None were Edmond, so he was presumably the third child. This would mean that his age (26) on his marriage record must be wrong.

I was sent a copy of Ivan's obituary by Joseph Johnson. Someone had written "2-16-79" on the copy. The Social Security Index has 1978 as his year of death, not 1979. His obituary said he died at 58 which would be consistent with 1979. The Dickinson-Streeter Funeral Home records have his death as 1979.

Ivan was an electrician at Smith and Wesson, Inc. He lived in Agawam, Massachusetts most of his life. He was an Army-Air Force veteran of World War II. He married (1) Dorothy V. Meservey[3193] 19 July 1941 in Greenville, Piscataquis, Maine; they divorced. She was born 23 August 1922 in Shirley, Piscataquis, Maine. She is the daughter of Hason L. Meservey and Mildred L. Hall. Dorothy's middle name appeared to be something like "Voitons". I did not find birth records for the first three children, but Edwin was probably stationed somewhere during W.W.II and Dorothy might have been with him and had their first three children there.

She married Alfred Stanley Green[3203] 26 October 1941 in Northport, Waldo, Maine. He was born about April 1917 in Lowell, Middlesex, Maine. He is the son of Forrest M. Green and Elver Lear. Alfred's birth is derived from his ages on his children's birth records. He would have been born somewhere from the middle of March through the end of April.

ISSUE:

2884. i. child [———?———]. The various records of the other children of Goldie indicate that there was a child who was stillborn, although the records are inconsistent. Marilyn had no birth order number on her record. Barbara was listed as the third child, but with two other children living. Sandra was listed as the fourth child with one stillborn. Alfred, Jr. was also listed as the fourth child, but with one other dead. Sharon was listed as the fifth child with all children living. Rebecca was listed as the seventh child with one stillborn. James was listed as the eighth child with one stillborn. Ramona was listed as the ninth child with one stillborn and one dead (James). I found no other births back to 1939 for Goldie when she would have been 15, nor did I find any births in any of the gaps between the other children. Obviously, some of these records are wrong, but the most likely explanation is that Goldie's first child was stillborn and it was simply not recorded.[3204]

2885. f ii. Marilyn May Green, born 1 May 1943 in Belfast, Waldo, Maine. She married Daniel L. Pendleton August 1964 in Maine. [3205] Marilyn's middle name was spelled "May" on her birth record and she was born the first day of May so that may be correct, but her mother's middle name was spelled "Mae" and if the name was passed down then the spelling was different.[3206]

2886. f iii. Barbara Ann Green, born 14 November 1944 in Camden, Knox, Maine. [3207]

2887. f iv. Sandra Lee Green, born 31 December 1945 in Bangor, Penobscot, Maine. Sandra's record was microfilmed with the 1952 records even though she was born in 1945 and the record was sent in then.[3208]

On the marriage record for Glennis and Russell it says that this is her second marriage and that she was divorced. I found no other marriage for a Glennis or a Rita Brown in the period from 1945 to 1950 in Maine. It is possible that her information and Russell's information was reversed or that she married out of state. The birth records of her children always listed a number of children living that was one greater than the children she had with Russell. This is another indication that she was probably married and had a child before divorcing and re-marrying.

Blair Alden[9] Frost[3585] (1641.Beatrice[8], 1193.Frank[7], 629.Russell[6], 209.Nathan[5], 52.David[4], 13.Noah[3], 4.Daniel[2], 1.Gideon[1]) was born 25 September 1944 in Dexter, Penobscot, Maine. Blair is the twin brother of Sonya. He is better known to everyone as Buddy. He has served as President of the Parkman Association from 1992 to the present (1999.) He was Vice-President from 1983 through 1991. Buddy wrote the following about his family's history:

As I've grown up in this state of Maine I've noticed our kinfolks seem a little stronger, and face the resistance of life better than other folk, so I did a little research to find out why. I'm here to say we're rough, tough, and hard to bluff, and used to hardships. We came by this quite naturally because, you see, my grandfather, Frank Brooks, got off to a rough start. When he was three months old his mother died and he and his sister were put on a train and sent from Montana to Maine. After being adopted, he grew up, married and raised ten children, two of which drowned in St. Albans, Maine, one burned in a fire, but grandfather had a lot of faith, though he saw much tragedy, he survived the stress. Because Frank Brooks was rough, tough, and hard to bluff, and used to hardships. But he came by this quite naturally because, you see, his father, Russell Parkman, lived a similar life.

After Russell married Nancy Manter, a beautiful and strong young woman, they chased the gold rush to Montana. They lived in a log cabin, had nine children, but the plague hit Russell's family and he lost two sons, a daughter, and his wife. But Russell Parkman faced this life head on because he was rough, tough, and hard to bluff, and used to hardships, but he came by this quite naturally because Russell was a great-grandson of Hannah Parkman.

Hannah, wife of Noah, was one of the first children to move to Somerset County. She came with her folks to Bloomfield, which is now Skowhegan. Times were hard, she saw her father, Joseph Weston, die from exposure to the cold, after successfully leading Benedict Arnold through the Skowhegan Falls and Norridgewock Falls. Then she and her husband moved to St. Albans to help settle that land, now Hannah was some lady, she was rough, tough, hard to bluff, and used to hardships, but she came by this quite naturally because she was the granddaughter of Steven Weston.

Steven Weston married Hannah Flagg (daughter of Gershom Flagg), who is many times spoken of in Maine history books as a great industrialist. They had fourteen children, lost five at young ages. Steven was a pioneer to Maine, he came to Bloomfield, left his son with two other teenagers and went back down to river to get the rest of the family. Steven and Hannah with other settlers didn't make it back up the river because the river froze. They all spent the winter in Vassalborough, leaving the boys in Bloomfield. When the ice went out, Steven and Hannah and the families of the other two boys found the boys healthy and in good spirit, because you see they were rough, tough, hard to bluff, and used to hardships. But they came by this quite naturally because Steven Weston's grandfather was John Weston.

Jonny was born in England in 1631. When he was fourteen years old his father had died. He, being a tough little kid, sneaked aboard a ship going to the colonies. To keep from being caught, he hid atop a stack of boxes about twenty feet high which carried the food and supplies for the long trip. Things went fine the first two days. Jonny enjoyed being a stowaway, but that night came a storm, the ship was small, but seaworthy, it began to roll and pitch. As the sea got rougher, Jonny couldn't hold on and fell all the way to the deck, and landed on his head. He got up a little shaken and a little dazed, but he survived the fall because you see by now John Weston was rough, tough, hard to bluff, and used to HARD SHIPS.

Buddy married Mary Ellen Winn[3586] 23 January 1965 in Milford, Worcester, Massachusetts. She was born 15 December 1945 in Milford, Worcester, Massachusetts. She is the daughter of John Lewis Winn, Jr. and Lillian Viola Chaplin. Buddy and Mary Ellen hosted the 59th, 68th, and 72nd Parkman Association Meetings in 1983, 1992, and 1996, respectively.

SOURCE NOTES

The source notes that appear below are abbreviated versions of the actual sources. For example: instead of a source note reading "History of the Descendants of John Whitman of Weymouth, Mass. by Charles H. Farnum. A.M., Assistant in Archeology in the Peabody Museum, Yale University, pub. 1889, page 444", it will appear as simply "Whitman Descendants."

This is an intentional compromise made to limit the length of the text. If every source note were written in its "proper" form, it would require another entire book just for them. While I realize this means that someone researching the resource will have to take longer to look in an index or to determine which roll of microfilm to use, I feel that this is more than offset by the book's length (and cost) being reduced so that it can reach an audience wider than just serious researchers.

WARNING: Some information in this book is presented without sources. In some cases, I was not able to find primary sources to corroborate information that had already appeared in the prior Parkman genealogies. I chose to present this information anyway, with the warning that it should not be considered a "fact" unless it can be proven by a source other than this book.

Below is a cross reference of the abbreviated source and the full name source to which it refers.

A Person's Name - Many people have given me information that I was unable to verify from primary sources. It may have been written correspondence, emails, or conversations in person or over the phone. While this person may have retrieved this information from a primary source, it is subject to the errors that can creep in when it goes through various channels of communication.

Blake Descendants - Descendants of Jasper Blake, Emigrant from England to Hampton, N.H. ca. 1643; 1649-1979; by Carlton E. Blake; pub. 1980.

Burrill Genealogy - The Burrell/Burrill Genealogy by Ruth Burell-Brown, pub. 1990.

Chadbourne Genealogy - The Chadbourne Family in America: A Genealogy compiled by Elaine Chadbourne Bacon, pub 1994.

Civil War Service Card - All Maine soldiers in the Union Army of the Civil War have index cards in Maine State Library that give enlistment, service, and vital information.

Crockett Genealogy - Crockett Genealogy 1610-1988; Some Descendants of Thomas and Ann Crockett of Kittery, Maine by Charles Samuel Candage, pub 1989.

Frank Brooks' Notebook - Frank Brooks kept a notebook recording births marriages and deaths among his father's descendants. This notebook is now in the Parkman Association Archives.

Hart Genealogy - The Descendants of John Hart & Betsy Gullifer, of Waterville & Pittsfield, Maine - 1804 - 1995, by Ardell J. (Parkman) Lynds, pub 1995.

Hathorn Genealogy - The Sturdy Hathorn Families of Mass., Maine, N.Y. State, and the West compiled by Rev. Chas. N. Sinnett, Brainerd, Minnesota

Horne Genealogy - One Branch of the Horne Family with Allied Families by Hope Horne, pub 1992.

IGI - International Genealogical Index - A collection of records submitted to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints by private researchers and which is available in those temples that have genealogy services.

Jewetts - Jewetts of America by Frederick Clarke Jewett, M.D., vols. I and II, pub 1908.

Lanpher Journal - The Lanpher family kept a record of their branch's births, marriages and deaths. It is in their possession.

MOCA -Maine Old Cemetery Association - This is a group of people who have copied down the information from gravestones around the state and published it.

MSA - The Maine State Archives have the vital records from 1892 to 1955 available on microfilm. Prior to 1892, Maine did not require them, although some towns did, so some pre-1892 vital records are available on microfilm. After 1955, Maine just has a Marriage Index and a Death Index that give names and dates, but no other information.

McIntyre Genealogy - Descendants of Micum McIntyre, Revised Edition compiled and published by Robert Harry McIntyre 1983.

Other - This indicates that there was some information on the person for which I did not have a source.

Sherrard Genealogy - John Sherrard (c1806 - 1868) and Descendants by Karin E. (Sherrard) Gower, pub 1993.

Skowhegan on the Kennebec - Skowhegan on the Kennebec by Louise Helen Coburn and other residents, Vols. I and II, pub 1941.

Social Security Death Index - The deaths that the Social Security Administration has recorded are available with the names of the person and the date of death, among other things.

Weymouth Early Families - Genealogies of the Early Families of Weymouth, Massachusetts by George Walter Chamberlain, pub 1984.

Whitman Descendants - History of the Descendants of John Whitman of Weymouth, Mass. by Charles H. Farnum. A.M., Assistant in Archeology in the Peabody Museum, Yale University, pub. 1889

Wingate History - History of the Wingate Family in England and in America compiled by Charles E.L. Wingate, pub 1886.
